

Morning Oregonian

ESTABLISHED BY HENRY L. PITCOCK. Published by The Oregonian Publishing Co., 130 Sixth Street, Portland, Ore., E. B. PIPER, Editor.

Subscription Rates—Invariably in Advance. Daily, Sunday included, one year, $25.00; Daily, Sunday included, three months, $8.00; Daily, Sunday included, one month, $2.75.

How to Remit—Send postage money order, express, draft, check, or cash. All rights of publication of special dispatches remain in the hands of the publisher.

THE HIGH COST OF FINICAL TASTE. Food increased 17 per cent in cost in the nine months immediately prior to November 1, but only 1 per cent, taking the country over, in the last four months of that period.

It is a severe commentary on the economic conditions of the country that against seditious agitation that the attorney-general has to rely on the anti-syndicalism laws of Oregon and Washington for prosecution of the recent raids.

William M. Wood, president of the American Woolen company, says that although certain economic laws have been instrumental in maintaining high prices for wool, they have not been the principal factors.

Those who attempt to prophesy the course of immigration in the near future labor under the handicap of all prophets. Experience of the past few years has not been encouraging for future calculations.

Comparison of the manner in which the German and other peoples of Europe are put in question the essential ingredient of capacity for self-government.

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

wools will only increase, we suspect, the popular desire for garments made from Australian wool exclusively.

MAKE INDUSTRIAL CENSUS COMPLETE. Of equal importance with the population census which is now being taken in Portland is the industrial census, on which work has also begun.

It is of vital interest to the city that manufacturers take these blanks seriously and fill them out promptly, and mail them without delay to Samuel L. Rogers, director of census, Washington, D. C.

Removal of the difficulty in the way of obtaining cargo for steamers to run directly between Portland and European ports is shown by J. Fred Larson to rest in the power of Portland producers and merchants themselves.

They have both a direct and an indirect interest in following this policy. If they deal through Portland agents, they will be in personal touch with the men who handle their shipments and the goods will be loaded, in a sense, under their eyes.

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

completely Americanized Teutons as Franz Sigel and Carl Schurz. Most of the present strain on the melting pot has been due to immigration within relatively a few years.

It is of vital interest to the city that manufacturers take these blanks seriously and fill them out promptly, and mail them without delay to Samuel L. Rogers, director of census, Washington, D. C.

Removal of the difficulty in the way of obtaining cargo for steamers to run directly between Portland and European ports is shown by J. Fred Larson to rest in the power of Portland producers and merchants themselves.

They have both a direct and an indirect interest in following this policy. If they deal through Portland agents, they will be in personal touch with the men who handle their shipments and the goods will be loaded, in a sense, under their eyes.

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

spirit of their race by driving the Ukrainians from Galicia, and the Bolsheviks across the Beresina, and they give promise of making good as a democratic nation.

It is of vital interest to the city that manufacturers take these blanks seriously and fill them out promptly, and mail them without delay to Samuel L. Rogers, director of census, Washington, D. C.

Removal of the difficulty in the way of obtaining cargo for steamers to run directly between Portland and European ports is shown by J. Fred Larson to rest in the power of Portland producers and merchants themselves.

They have both a direct and an indirect interest in following this policy. If they deal through Portland agents, they will be in personal touch with the men who handle their shipments and the goods will be loaded, in a sense, under their eyes.

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

AMENDMENT PROCESS IS DEFINED. United States Could Veto Any Attempt to Alter League Covenant.

PORTLAND, Jan. 5.—(To the Editor.)—Attached you will find a news item clipped from the Portland Journal.

It is of vital interest to the city that manufacturers take these blanks seriously and fill them out promptly, and mail them without delay to Samuel L. Rogers, director of census, Washington, D. C.

Removal of the difficulty in the way of obtaining cargo for steamers to run directly between Portland and European ports is shown by J. Fred Larson to rest in the power of Portland producers and merchants themselves.

They have both a direct and an indirect interest in following this policy. If they deal through Portland agents, they will be in personal touch with the men who handle their shipments and the goods will be loaded, in a sense, under their eyes.

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Those Who Come and Go. Piano wire was used to take soundings of Crater lake in 1884. C. D. Darling, who was a member of the party, says they found 1998 feet of water in the deepest part.

It is of vital interest to the city that manufacturers take these blanks seriously and fill them out promptly, and mail them without delay to Samuel L. Rogers, director of census, Washington, D. C.

Removal of the difficulty in the way of obtaining cargo for steamers to run directly between Portland and European ports is shown by J. Fred Larson to rest in the power of Portland producers and merchants themselves.

They have both a direct and an indirect interest in following this policy. If they deal through Portland agents, they will be in personal touch with the men who handle their shipments and the goods will be loaded, in a sense, under their eyes.

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

RESUME OF ABANDONED POLICIES. His Celery in Reversing Self.

PORTLAND, Jan. 5.—(To the Editor.)—President Wilson, in his inaugural address, delivered to the students of Princeton university June 14, 1909, said, in part:

It is of vital interest to the city that manufacturers take these blanks seriously and fill them out promptly, and mail them without delay to Samuel L. Rogers, director of census, Washington, D. C.

Removal of the difficulty in the way of obtaining cargo for steamers to run directly between Portland and European ports is shown by J. Fred Larson to rest in the power of Portland producers and merchants themselves.

They have both a direct and an indirect interest in following this policy. If they deal through Portland agents, they will be in personal touch with the men who handle their shipments and the goods will be loaded, in a sense, under their eyes.

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

In Other Days. Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian, January 18, 1895.

It is of vital interest to the city that manufacturers take these blanks seriously and fill them out promptly, and mail them without delay to Samuel L. Rogers, director of census, Washington, D. C.

Removal of the difficulty in the way of obtaining cargo for steamers to run directly between Portland and European ports is shown by J. Fred Larson to rest in the power of Portland producers and merchants themselves.

They have both a direct and an indirect interest in following this policy. If they deal through Portland agents, they will be in personal touch with the men who handle their shipments and the goods will be loaded, in a sense, under their eyes.

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"

Incidental in showing the right people are running the Albany Democrat is the New Year's issue, not large, as becomes news print conversation, but full of text or value to the city and the reader.

In lieu of a speech by Herb Hoover, the boys might fill in at the Jackson club tonight with a movie showing those 100,000 people that the administration did not send to France.

Government statistics show there is 50 per cent more wool in the country than last year, and somebody please show that to Mr. Cooney, whose slogan is "wool in woolens!"