

REDS' WARSHP
ROLLS SIGHT

Early Discovery Expected.
Final Round-Up to Follow.

ALIENS' CASES PREPARED

Federal and State Officials Work
Together in Effort to Deport or Convict Members.

Evidence procured yesterday by William Bryson, chief of the department of justice of this district, leads him to believe that within the next few days he will come into possession of the complete and official membership roll of the labor communist party of Oregon.

Every since the city-wide "red" raids of last Friday night, department of justice agents have been heading every effort toward procuring this list, which will give them the name of every radical belonging to the organization.

The finding of this membership roll will mean the completion of the "red" investigation in Oregon, Mr. Bryson said, as all known members have been taken into custody since that time. It is known that there are many more members of the party and from the statements made by some of those arrested, the discovery of the membership roll will result in the arrest of persons of supposed standing in several cities of the state.

Several More Believed Aliens. Although there are but 11 known aliens among the 59 arrested, department of justice operatives believe that several of those who are asserting American citizenship are not naturalized citizens, and while the state grand jury is now making its investigation pending the returning of criminal syndicalism indictments, federal authorities are initiating a separate inquiry to determine the citizenship status of some of those who are now before state officials for investigation and prosecution.

If this investigation should show that some of these supposed citizens are foreigners, the department is authorized under deportation proceedings by the naturalization bureau, Mr. Bryson added. He said that every effort would be made by some of those alien for deportation to their native lands.

The naturalization bureau yesterday began its investigations and hearings of those known aliens who were rounded up in the federal raid. Secret hearings are being conducted by Immigration Inspector Watkins, in the absence of E. P. Bonham, chief of the local bureau.

Just as rapidly as these hearings are completed, the local bureau will send a transcript of all evidence, together with its recommendations, to the immigration bureau at Washington for final action.

Mr. Evans Takes Charge. District Attorney Evans took personal charge of the grand jury report of local "red" activities yesterday and conferred during the afternoon with Mr. Bryson regarding the evidence procured by the department of justice and United States Marshal Alexander during the raid. He said that because much of this evidence is needed, both by the state grand jury, immigration authorities and department of justice operatives in their different lines of investigation, photographs of much of the literature and other "red" propaganda were taken yesterday.

Whether or not the leaders of the local "red" group are charged with treason in federal courts depends upon instructions from officials at Washington. It was said at the federal building yesterday that the grand jury is in readiness to present to the present federal grand jury if such a course of action should be adopted.

PRICES CAUSE COMPLAINT

Housewives Report Cases of What They Think Is Profiteering.

Further arrests on charges of sugar profiteering may be made later in the week, as a result of the complaints of A. W. Anderson, an Irvington grocer, and Joseph Lettiff, a grocer of 274 Yamhill street, who have secured warrants issued by United States District Attorney Humphreys of selling cane sugar at more than the price fixed by the government.

Following the publicity which was gained through these two arrests, numerous householders are reporting profiteering cases to Mr. Humphreys and investigators were at work yesterday checking on these complaints. If any report is found to be true more complaints will be issued and the grand jury will have the opportunity to take up the investigation of all profiteering charges.

Former Jeopardy Plea

Appellant Now in Jail and His Similar Cases to Be Disposed of Soon.

Should a plea of former jeopardy made yesterday fail, trial of the appellant in the municipal court for violation of the city ordinance against the use of defective brakes will begin in the circuit court next Monday.

Presiding Judge McCourt announced his purpose yesterday to set for trial as soon as possible all cases where defendants are held in jail in lieu of necessary bond, as with Melkie, who was held in jail before Judge Stapleton yesterday afternoon, but both sides pleaded for more time in which to arrange for bail.

"Every man has a right to a speedy trial, and particularly in case he is not able financially to furnish bond," declared Judge McCourt. "Keeping him in jail for an unnecessarily long period before allowing him an opportunity to post the necessary amounts to punishment before conviction."

Legal Problem Presented.

Former Presiding Judge Gates had fixed the trial date in the Melkie appeal case for the middle of February. With the assertion that trial of Melkie for violation of the ordinance would involve the identical offense leading to the involuntary manslaughter charges from which he was freed by a jury in the court of Circuit Judge Tucker yesterday, Attorney Tom Garland filed a plea of former jeopardy before a jury on the same offense, the city ordinance against the use of defective brakes, which is not merely that of having defective brakes, but includes the striking and killing of a pedestrian.

Appeal Now in Jail and His Similar Cases to Be Disposed of Soon.

Melkie is appealing from a sentence of six months in the county jail and a fine of $500 imposed by Municipal Judge Roseburg. He has been in jail since November 17.

Attorney Garland declared yesterday that he would be willing to enter a plea of guilty for his client on the charge of violating a city ordinance against the use of defective brakes, but he would not consent to the killing of a pedestrian, which is not merely that of having defective brakes, but includes the striking and killing of a pedestrian.

Divorce Suit is Halted

Inquiry by Judge Reveals Illegal Marriage.

When a husband "flew into a rage" when his new dress was bought, asserts woman who wins decree. Through the telegraphic investigation conducted immediately following incomplete testimony on the witness stand in reply to questions of Presiding Judge McCourt, Mrs. Essie Lee found yesterday that she had never been married legally to the man from whom she is seeking a divorce by default.

Attorney Thomas Mannix had concluded his interrogation of the witness comprising the cruel and inhuman treatment complained of when Judge McCourt turned to the witness to ask if she or her husband had ever been married before.

Judge McCourt said he would refuse to grant a divorce until it is shown that the husband actually was divorced from his first wife at the time he married his woman.

$500 Will Be Raised to Meet Highway Delegation Expense.

NORTH BEND, Or., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—To assist in defraying the expense of sending a delegation to Washington, D. C. to work for the passage of the Roosevelt military highway appropriation bill for the coast from Astoria to the California line, Coos county will raise $500.

Cross-complaints were filed yesterday by the defendants in the following divorce suits: P. J. against Viola Legion, a divorce suit against George R. Wilson, Anna May against Glenn O. Powell, Ella E. against Cora Hobble and Charles L. against Cora Norton.

300 MEN WANTED!
EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY to young men who are experienced in retail
Dry Goods—Clothing
or Shoes
(Window Trimmers also Needed)
DON'T DELAY!
INVESTIGATE TODAY!
J. C. Penney Company
Now operating 197 stores
is planning to open
100 additional stores early in 1920

What will your future be if you remain in your present position? Even though you are now employed at a very good salary does the outlook satisfy you? The ambition of most men is to have an actual financial interest in the business in which they are engaged. Do you see any such opportunity ahead for you? The investment of money is not necessary for your success with us. When you consider that this organization of 297 stores started in 1902 with one small store you can readily appreciate how our plan of expansion is succeeding with the very best indications that our growth will increase proportionately as time goes on.

More than 300 men, during the comparatively few years since 1902, are now either managers or financial partners in the business and our plan of operation has made that possible. After relatively few years a great many of these men have each secured partnership interests in several stores. Briefly the plan is this: These men came with us at first as retail salesmen, some of them even sold out their own business to do so, after realizing the greater possibilities of co-operative effort, and the progress of these men has to a great extent, been a matter of their own ability and efforts.

Accordingly as business has justified expansion, new stores have been opened and managed by men selected from the salesforce. If the men made a success of the management they were eventually sold a one-third interest in a new store and proceeded to manage it. From then on these men automatically obtain partnership interests in other stores that are the outgrowth of the one in which they first receive an interest. Thus in time men usually acquire interests in more than one store and the possibilities for growth are not hampered but very much encouraged.

NOTE:—To men who do not possess the capital required, at the time they are offered one-third interest, a loan is made by the J. C. Penney Company and repaid to the company from the subsequent profits. The merchandise we sell in all our stores comprises Dry Goods, Men's, Women's and Children's Clothing, Shoes and Kindred Goods. Only men experienced in the retail selling of these lines may avail themselves of this opportunity.

Imperative Qualifications: Thorough Experience, Good Habits, Highest reference. Ages 25 to 35.
