DEMOCRATS MEET IN PORTLAND TODAY

Love Feast to Be Held to Plan State Campaign.

FULL TICKET PROBABLE

Booms for Several Favorites May Be Launched at Gathering of Local Party Leaders.

Democrats will have a pow-wow in Fortland today to consider the state of the party and get busy for the campaign of 1920. It will be a near-convention, camouflaged as a "conference" of the party leaders and all good and true democrats who want to attend. The day will wind up with a Jackson day banquet at the Benson and already ticket sales exceed the normal accommodations. The out-of-towners will be taken care of first and the Portland contingent will be pared and as it will embody the ideas gracious in the matter.

Of course, the democrats won't have a regular, honest-to-goodness convention or assembly, for such meetings are against their principles; but the gathering will be mighty near it. It will be an opportunity to exchange opinions and figure out how to overcome the republican majority in Oregon and each county.

Organization's Plans to Be Laid. The main points to be taken up will be:

1. Systematic organization of the lease land three years. democrats in every county.
2. Complete democratic tickets in every county.

5. Complete democratic state

Consideration of the democratic t. Consideration of the democratic presidential primaries.

Every member of the state central committee has been urged to be present. The county chairmen have been solicited, and all the warhorses of the party are included in the bid to attend Advance estimates are that tend. Advance estimates are that about 200 democrats will be on hand -at least, about that many want to attend the dinner in the evening. The ball opens at 10 o'clock this morning in the Tyrolean room of the Benson. The session will run all moning and all afternoon and the campaign will be considered from every angle. One of the main desires of the party is to carry Oregon for the democratic nominee for president; the identity of this candidate isn't known, but the Oregon democrats are for him, anyway. They feel the re-proach of Oregon being the only western state in 1916 which refused to vote for Wilson, and they wish to wipe out that stain upon their Aggressive Party Is Goal. Leaders of the party are particu-larly eager to form a well-knit, ac-tive and aggressive democracy in larly eager to form a welllarly eager to form a welltive and aggressive democracy in oregon. They intend to reach out for the ex-service men and inject some new blood into the party. In the past the democratic primaries have been bretty tame affairs. To revitalize the commission, aside from those now exercised by the equalization board, would be to supervise and control the assessment of property to provide pretty tame affaira. To revitalize the party, every county group will be urged to get up contests for every nomination and to be sure that a complete democratic ticket is offered to the voters at the general election in

The practice which came into being of sacrificing everyone and everything for one man. If the George E. Chamberlain or Oswald West, has had a deterrent effect upon democrats and they have no inclination to be put up to be slaughtered. The state organization will give assurances that this year every man on the democratic ticket will get a square deal and all the support the organization can give this man. The day of one-man campaigns is over if the present leaders have nominations and it will be a fine time to propagate booms. H. G. Stark-weather, as state chairman, will pre-side at the deliberations. At night the Jackson club will stage

At hight the Jackson club will stage its dinner, starting promptly at 6:30 o'clock. There has been such a demand for tickets that George Lovejoy had to call in all unsold tickets Monday, at which time enough had been disposed of to fill the accommodations. By telegraph and long distance phone, orders have been received for tickets.

It is said that this will be not only the most largely attended banquet ever held under the auspices of the Jackson club, but the first one when there will be no deficit. The committee of arrangements consists of George Lovejoy, G. Y. Harry, H. G. Starkweather, Mrs. J. A. Keating and Mrs. C. E. Currey.

Several Speakers Billed. Several Speakers Billed.

Speakers at the dinner will be Major Leater W. Humphreys, United States district attorney, who will talk on "Democracy of Today"; Captain Waiter B. Gleason, on "The Military Accomplishments of the Administration"; Mrs. L. Gee on "Labor's Advance Under the Administration"; Dr. E. H. Pence on "The Ideal of Party Leadership"; Father O. J. McMullen on "A Lesson From the Life of Anon Market Property of the Property of the Life of Anon Market Property of the Life of Anon Market Property of the Market Pr Leadership"; Father O. J. McMulien on "A Lesson From the Life of Andrew Jackson"; Miss Elizabeth Bain on "The Democratic Spirit of the Boys in France"; Mrs. J. Curtis Simmons will sing, accompanied by Miss Mayme Heien Flynn. Elton Watkins, president of the Jackson club, will preside. An orchestra will be on hand. In the evening some interesting telegrams are expected from the east. James W. Gerard, aspirant for president, has promised to send a message; Homer Cummings, national chairman, will leave the banquet board at Washington, D. CLUB'S PLEA IS GRANTED

U. S. Grant Republicans Placed on

Lincoln Day Committee.

Because it was unintentionally everlooked in the appointment of a general committee to arrange for a Lincoln day banquet, M. G. Griffin, president of the U. S. Grant Republican club, yesterday called at republican state headquarters in the Wilcox building and asked that a place on the committee be given his club. Mr. Griffin was promptly appointed. This club is one of the oldest active republican clubs in this city and has a large membership. In addition to President Griffin, the other officers are: Waldemar Seton, vice-president;

are: Waldemar Seton, vice-president Mrs. George J. Cameron, secretary-The general committee will meet at republican headquarters in the Wil-cox building at 8 o'clock tonight to complete arrangements for the dinner which will be given in the Cham-ber of Commerce dining room, Feb-ruary 12. The banquet will be under the auspices of the republican state central committee, assisted by every republican club and organization in Multnomah county.

LEGISLATORS ARE INVITED S. Stewart to Talk Before Roose
