Portland Board Moves to Stop Smallpox Epidemic.

FIVE TEACHERS RESIGN

E. F. Stuart Employed to Fill New Position of Supervisor of Operations; 18 Instructors Elected.

Every school pupil and every teacher exposed to smallpox will have the choice of submitting to vaccination or remaining away from classes the 21 days set forth in state board of health regulations. This was the edict issued yesterday by the school board in compliance with a request made by City Health Officer Parrish and Thornton T. Munger, secretary of the City club.

Dr. E. A. Sommer quoted at length from laws governing vaccination and made the motion, which will prevent children from returning to school un til the danger is past. Free vaccina-tion has been offered through the health bureau and Dr. Sommer sug-
