ARMENIAN RELIEF DRIVE GAINS.—
According to long distance telephone reports being received at near east relief headquarters from State Chairman Samuel C. Lancaster who is with State Director J. J. Handsaker in ganization. State Director J. J. Handsaker in southern Oregon organizing forces there for next month's state-wide campaign for funds, preliminary work in that section is being taken up with much enthusiasm. A rousing meeting was held at Albany last night. Mr. Lancaster reported, and the Albany campaign forces were greatly enthused by the address of General Mesro op Azgapetian, who stopped over in Albany a few hours, on his way to California. A conference of workers and leagers from various southern Oregon counties was held at Eugene yesterday afternoon. Mr. Lancaster and Mr. Handsaker will return to Portland today to resume preparations for the local campaign that is scheduled for February 10 to 20 inclusive.

HUGH WALFOLE LECTURES THURSDAY High Walpole, English novelist who will lecture at the Masonic temple Thursday evening under the auspices of the Drama league, is a statesman as well as an author. During the war he was in Russia doing diplomatic work for the British government, and on his return to London, served in the foreign office until a few months ago, when he resigned to continue his literary work. His subject will be "Russian Vignettes." Mr. Walpole is a comparatively young man to have had such success in the literary world. His first book was published in 1909.

Gasco Comments

No. 3

Mrs. R. E. Kerr, 942 Belmont St., in speaking of her Gasco Furnace, said: "It is so fine! Even during the snow storm and the cold snap it heated the house beautifully, and now with normal Oregon weather it seems still more perfect, for other furnaces are always too hot on a mild day, while this furnace just keeps the house at an even temperature.

"Commissioner Pier, an old friend of ours, says that his solid fuel furnace cost him more for up-keep during the cold snap than our gas bill was: Ours was $18.60 for 32 days. I think our heating bill for the entire season with gas will be less than that of any of our friends
