COMMUNITY SERVICE PARTY TO BE TOMORROW NIGHT.

Young Women From Martha Washington Will Entertain ex-Service and Y. M. C. A. Young Men.

That community service on a peace basis is about to become an element to the national life of America is evidenced by the wonderful way in which the really big men and women of the entire country are rallying to the comprehensive plan of organization which has grown out of the real need as brought to the surface during the war period," said H. W. Arbury, ex-ecutive secretary of the newly or-ganized Portland Community Service

Portland has the distinction of be-Ing the first of the northwestern dities actually to take up this work and to perfect its organization." Trinity parish house has been turned over to Community Service for dances and the first of these affairs was given last week with more that 300 in attendance. The club of 100 young women employed by the Hazel-wood company were hostesses on this occasion and the guests were ex-serv ice men and men from the Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow evening another similar party will be given, the hostesses being the young women who live at the Martha Washington.

On the following Friday evening the young women from Oids, Wort-man & King and from Lipman & Wolfe's stores will be hostesses. From the organization of these groups will grow smaller recreational and study

A budget has been worked out for the support of this work during the coming year and $20,000 will be necessary. J. H. Joyce is chairman of this committee, other members being Sanford Lowengard and William D. Wheelwright. Active memberships are $1, contributing memberships $10, supporting memberships $25 and sus-taining memberships $100. The work of securing 5000 members for Comof securing 5000 members for Com-munity Service in Portland will begin at once.
