Bond Investments Urged. "I am no pessimist at any stage of the game," said Mr. Baker, "and I will say that, in my opinion, a business man who will not invest in securities that are safeguarded by every possible means is indeed shortsighted. I am checking on our office files and find that we have a view better in the way of educating the American people to invest in securities."

MEMORIAL FUND GIVES WOMEN.—Mrs. R. R. Giltner has just given a $500 memorial for her husband to the building fund of the University of Oregon, through Mrs. George Giltner, president of the university and patron of the woman's building. Mr. Giltner will be fittingly represented among the pioneer students of the university by a bronze tablet bearing his name which will be placed in the main hall of the new building. The memorial gift is announced that of President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell of an additional $1000 for the building fund. Present and Mrs. Campbell had formerly given $1500, making their total gift $2500.

MEAN FOUND PLAYING IN MUD.—John Kreutzer was kneeling in a big puddle of mud making fancy mud pies yesterday morning when neighborhood police officers, who were on duty on the Terwilliger school was standing about the man, engaging him in conversation and chiding him on as he busied himself with his mud. Motorcycle Patrolman Horack answered the call and took Kreutzer to police headquarters. He was later transferred to the county jail where he is held pending hearing by an insanity commission.

FLUTING ROCKS CAUSE SUIT.—Damages totaling $6000 were demanded by J. W. Morton and others owning property along the Butte Hill section of the Columbia river highway in Hood River county of A. D. Kern, contractor, in a suit filed in the circuit court yesterday. The property owners asserted that blasting and other roadwork resulted in the throwing of huge boulders on five acres of cultivated land, the breaking of fruit trees and other trees, the demolishing of fences and the contamination of the water supply.

LAUNDRY PLANS $18,000 BUILDING.—Erection of a one-story building for the Portland Laundry company was forecast yesterday through the filing of plans by the company for such a structure with Fred Eichenlaub, city plan examiner. The structure will occupy a plot 100 by 100 feet at Union street and East Mill street, and is estimated to cost $18,000.
