

Morning Oregonian

ESTABLISHED BY HENRY L. FITZCOCK... PUBLISHED BY THE OREGONIAN PUBLISHING CO., 135 SOUTH STREET, PORTLAND, OREGON.

Subscription Rates: Daily, Sunday included, six months $4.50... Daily, Sunday included, three months $2.25...

favor only the consumer. He is offered a state system of fire insurance—an indefinite promise, which may or may not be good, of a cut in the price of one thing that has not kept...

THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT'S decision to suspend, on February 25, the issuance of passports to picture brides should remove another possible cause of friction between two nations. It also makes more effective...

GRAMMAR AND WASHING. "But, Mrs. Winters, one of the young women teachers, if you were to wash your hands, you would get $6 a day, as against $3 a day for me again there was laughter."

WASTE OF AMERICAN VALOR. The same spirit moved the American soldiers who captured an armored train of General Semenovoff in the best troops of the United States...

RIGHT TO PROHIBIT STRIKES. The question whether railroad employees shall be forbidden by law to strike will doubtless develop such virtually on its merits and was defeated.

INCENTIVE FOR TEACHING. The effect on the future of teaching as a profession of the tendency toward a 10 per cent wage increase in a year did well on a county job, but were a long way from the hen and a half that laid an egg and a half in a day and a half.

THE OREGONIAN'S "white collar" men are not marrying as fast as the workmen. Easy explanation is that salaries do not equal wages.

THE OREGONIAN'S "white collar" men are not marrying as fast as the workmen. Easy explanation is that salaries do not equal wages.

THE OREGONIAN'S "white collar" men are not marrying as fast as the workmen. Easy explanation is that salaries do not equal wages.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE TIMES. Odd Wedding Announcement by James Gordon Bennett Recalled. The recent sale of the New York Herald has revived the gossip about the temperamental oddities of the original James Gordon Bennett, the founder of that paper.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. The Butte Crock Land, Livestock & Lumber company is preparing for lambing from 7300 ewes, according to Frank Sankey, who looks after the sheep end of the company in the "Posible" country.

TRAINING WILL BENEFIT BOYS. No Danger That Two Weeks a Year Will Impair Health. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—J. O. Farmer of Hancock is evidently laboring under a misconception of the plan for universal training.

INVERSE RATIO LAW PROPOSED. Let Public Salaries Come Down as Living Costs Rise, Says Writer. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—Some wise guy made the crack that we common people are indulging in a present state of mind.

TO BLOOM IN TIME. There are still that do not really turn to sunshine. On the faces that are passing by, your way.

IN OTHER DAYS. Twenty-Five Years Ago. From The Oregonian, January 31, 1895. Sarah Kern, daughter of the late United States senator, taken yesterday, the vote was: Dolph, 42; Herndon, 10; Hays, 10; Whiteford, 10; Williams, 2; Lord, 5, remainder scattered.

HAVE WE HEARD FROM MARS? Guglielmo Marconi answers in the affirmative. So does Thomas A. Edison. So does Nicola Tesla.

THE EXPLOIT OF THE DUNRAVEN—Zigzagging across the Bay of Biscay, the "merchant steamer" Dunraven, appeared to be no more than a heavily-laden cargo vessel. But the unkempt master on the quarter-deck was Captain Gordon Campbell of the Royal navy, the most successful of all mystery ship commanders.

WHAT DID MADAME CAILLAUX SEEK?—Minnie Tracey, American singer, has a different explanation to that which appeared in the Methodist Episcopal church of the Parisian newspaper when Madame Caillaux, wife of the French minister of finance, shot and killed Gaston Calmette, editor of the famous Paris newspaper, the Figaro.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. The Butte Crock Land, Livestock & Lumber company is preparing for lambing from 7300 ewes, according to Frank Sankey, who looks after the sheep end of the company in the "Posible" country.

TRAINING WILL BENEFIT BOYS. No Danger That Two Weeks a Year Will Impair Health. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—J. O. Farmer of Hancock is evidently laboring under a misconception of the plan for universal training.

INVERSE RATIO LAW PROPOSED. Let Public Salaries Come Down as Living Costs Rise, Says Writer. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—Some wise guy made the crack that we common people are indulging in a present state of mind.

TO BLOOM IN TIME. There are still that do not really turn to sunshine. On the faces that are passing by, your way.

IN OTHER DAYS. Twenty-Five Years Ago. From The Oregonian, January 31, 1895. Sarah Kern, daughter of the late United States senator, taken yesterday, the vote was: Dolph, 42; Herndon, 10; Hays, 10; Whiteford, 10; Williams, 2; Lord, 5, remainder scattered.

HAVE WE HEARD FROM MARS? Guglielmo Marconi answers in the affirmative. So does Thomas A. Edison. So does Nicola Tesla.

THE EXPLOIT OF THE DUNRAVEN—Zigzagging across the Bay of Biscay, the "merchant steamer" Dunraven, appeared to be no more than a heavily-laden cargo vessel. But the unkempt master on the quarter-deck was Captain Gordon Campbell of the Royal navy, the most successful of all mystery ship commanders.

WHAT DID MADAME CAILLAUX SEEK?—Minnie Tracey, American singer, has a different explanation to that which appeared in the Methodist Episcopal church of the Parisian newspaper when Madame Caillaux, wife of the French minister of finance, shot and killed Gaston Calmette, editor of the famous Paris newspaper, the Figaro.

THOSE THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE—Super-optimists and kindred spirits are pictured in W. E. Hill's page of drawings. Half a page of Briggs makes a big total of pen sketches.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. The Butte Crock Land, Livestock & Lumber company is preparing for lambing from 7300 ewes, according to Frank Sankey, who looks after the sheep end of the company in the "Posible" country.

TRAINING WILL BENEFIT BOYS. No Danger That Two Weeks a Year Will Impair Health. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—J. O. Farmer of Hancock is evidently laboring under a misconception of the plan for universal training.

INVERSE RATIO LAW PROPOSED. Let Public Salaries Come Down as Living Costs Rise, Says Writer. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—Some wise guy made the crack that we common people are indulging in a present state of mind.

TO BLOOM IN TIME. There are still that do not really turn to sunshine. On the faces that are passing by, your way.

IN OTHER DAYS. Twenty-Five Years Ago. From The Oregonian, January 31, 1895. Sarah Kern, daughter of the late United States senator, taken yesterday, the vote was: Dolph, 42; Herndon, 10; Hays, 10; Whiteford, 10; Williams, 2; Lord, 5, remainder scattered.

HAVE WE HEARD FROM MARS? Guglielmo Marconi answers in the affirmative. So does Thomas A. Edison. So does Nicola Tesla.

THE EXPLOIT OF THE DUNRAVEN—Zigzagging across the Bay of Biscay, the "merchant steamer" Dunraven, appeared to be no more than a heavily-laden cargo vessel. But the unkempt master on the quarter-deck was Captain Gordon Campbell of the Royal navy, the most successful of all mystery ship commanders.

WHAT DID MADAME CAILLAUX SEEK?—Minnie Tracey, American singer, has a different explanation to that which appeared in the Methodist Episcopal church of the Parisian newspaper when Madame Caillaux, wife of the French minister of finance, shot and killed Gaston Calmette, editor of the famous Paris newspaper, the Figaro.

THOSE THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE—Super-optimists and kindred spirits are pictured in W. E. Hill's page of drawings. Half a page of Briggs makes a big total of pen sketches.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. The Butte Crock Land, Livestock & Lumber company is preparing for lambing from 7300 ewes, according to Frank Sankey, who looks after the sheep end of the company in the "Posible" country.

TRAINING WILL BENEFIT BOYS. No Danger That Two Weeks a Year Will Impair Health. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—J. O. Farmer of Hancock is evidently laboring under a misconception of the plan for universal training.

INVERSE RATIO LAW PROPOSED. Let Public Salaries Come Down as Living Costs Rise, Says Writer. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—Some wise guy made the crack that we common people are indulging in a present state of mind.

TO BLOOM IN TIME. There are still that do not really turn to sunshine. On the faces that are passing by, your way.

IN OTHER DAYS. Twenty-Five Years Ago. From The Oregonian, January 31, 1895. Sarah Kern, daughter of the late United States senator, taken yesterday, the vote was: Dolph, 42; Herndon, 10; Hays, 10; Whiteford, 10; Williams, 2; Lord, 5, remainder scattered.

HAVE WE HEARD FROM MARS? Guglielmo Marconi answers in the affirmative. So does Thomas A. Edison. So does Nicola Tesla.

THE EXPLOIT OF THE DUNRAVEN—Zigzagging across the Bay of Biscay, the "merchant steamer" Dunraven, appeared to be no more than a heavily-laden cargo vessel. But the unkempt master on the quarter-deck was Captain Gordon Campbell of the Royal navy, the most successful of all mystery ship commanders.

WHAT DID MADAME CAILLAUX SEEK?—Minnie Tracey, American singer, has a different explanation to that which appeared in the Methodist Episcopal church of the Parisian newspaper when Madame Caillaux, wife of the French minister of finance, shot and killed Gaston Calmette, editor of the famous Paris newspaper, the Figaro.

THOSE THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE—Super-optimists and kindred spirits are pictured in W. E. Hill's page of drawings. Half a page of Briggs makes a big total of pen sketches.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. The Butte Crock Land, Livestock & Lumber company is preparing for lambing from 7300 ewes, according to Frank Sankey, who looks after the sheep end of the company in the "Posible" country.

TRAINING WILL BENEFIT BOYS. No Danger That Two Weeks a Year Will Impair Health. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—J. O. Farmer of Hancock is evidently laboring under a misconception of the plan for universal training.

INVERSE RATIO LAW PROPOSED. Let Public Salaries Come Down as Living Costs Rise, Says Writer. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—Some wise guy made the crack that we common people are indulging in a present state of mind.

TO BLOOM IN TIME. There are still that do not really turn to sunshine. On the faces that are passing by, your way.

IN OTHER DAYS. Twenty-Five Years Ago. From The Oregonian, January 31, 1895. Sarah Kern, daughter of the late United States senator, taken yesterday, the vote was: Dolph, 42; Herndon, 10; Hays, 10; Whiteford, 10; Williams, 2; Lord, 5, remainder scattered.

HAVE WE HEARD FROM MARS? Guglielmo Marconi answers in the affirmative. So does Thomas A. Edison. So does Nicola Tesla.

THE EXPLOIT OF THE DUNRAVEN—Zigzagging across the Bay of Biscay, the "merchant steamer" Dunraven, appeared to be no more than a heavily-laden cargo vessel. But the unkempt master on the quarter-deck was Captain Gordon Campbell of the Royal navy, the most successful of all mystery ship commanders.

WHAT DID MADAME CAILLAUX SEEK?—Minnie Tracey, American singer, has a different explanation to that which appeared in the Methodist Episcopal church of the Parisian newspaper when Madame Caillaux, wife of the French minister of finance, shot and killed Gaston Calmette, editor of the famous Paris newspaper, the Figaro.

THOSE THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE—Super-optimists and kindred spirits are pictured in W. E. Hill's page of drawings. Half a page of Briggs makes a big total of pen sketches.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. The Butte Crock Land, Livestock & Lumber company is preparing for lambing from 7300 ewes, according to Frank Sankey, who looks after the sheep end of the company in the "Posible" country.

TRAINING WILL BENEFIT BOYS. No Danger That Two Weeks a Year Will Impair Health. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—J. O. Farmer of Hancock is evidently laboring under a misconception of the plan for universal training.

INVERSE RATIO LAW PROPOSED. Let Public Salaries Come Down as Living Costs Rise, Says Writer. PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor.)—Some wise guy made the crack that we common people are indulging in a present state of mind.

TO BLOOM IN TIME. There are still that do not really turn to sunshine. On the faces that are passing by, your way.

IN OTHER DAYS. Twenty-Five Years Ago. From The Oregonian, January 31, 1895. Sarah Kern, daughter of the late United States senator, taken yesterday, the vote was: Dolph, 42; Herndon, 10; Hays, 10; Whiteford, 10; Williams, 2; Lord, 5, remainder scattered.

HAVE WE HEARD FROM MARS? Guglielmo Marconi answers in the affirmative. So does Thomas A. Edison. So does Nicola Tesla.

THE EXPLOIT OF THE DUNRAVEN—Zigzagging across the Bay of Biscay, the "merchant steamer" Dunraven, appeared to be no more than a heavily-laden cargo vessel. But the unkempt master on the quarter-deck was Captain Gordon Campbell of the Royal navy, the most successful of all mystery ship commanders.

WHAT DID MADAME CAILLAUX SEEK?—Minnie Tracey, American singer, has a different explanation to that which appeared in the Methodist Episcopal church of the Parisian newspaper when Madame Caillaux, wife of the French minister of finance, shot and killed Gaston Calmette, editor of the famous Paris newspaper, the Figaro.

THOSE THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE—Super-optimists and kindred spirits are pictured in W. E. Hill's page of drawings. Half a page of Briggs makes a big total of pen sketches.