DEAL FOR BECKER STIRS KANSAS CITY

Salt Lake Offers Stround for Veteran Gardener.

BEAVERS SIGN SOUTHPAW

McCredies Receive Contract Fron Cunningham, Young Seattle Port-Side Hurler.

If Ernie Joohnson can dispose of Ralph Stround, the pitcher who fumped the Salt Lake club last year, to Kansas City for Beals Becker, he will add a powerful punch to the Bees' outfit. Kansas City fans are all stirred up about it. They admit that the K. C. club needs pitchers, but say it is not necessary to trade half the club to get one pitcher like Stround. Becker is wintering on this coast and there is no doubt but that he and Johnson have talked things over. John Ganzel, manager of the K. C. club, was willing to listen to reason. but John lost his job the other day and the new manager may not favor such a deal. Becker is a left-handed throwing and left-handed hitting outfielder and, although he never made a success as a major leaguer, it was not beacuse he could not hit. He has always been able to hit and he is a pretty fair fly chaser. Stround is of no use to Salt Lake club and if John-on can get a man like Becker for im, he will be turning a liability into Ed Barrow, manager of the Bosto Red Sox, wants Bill Rumler of the Salt Lake club for next year. And to be sure of getting him, he is willing to send two players to the Salt Lake club this year and other players next year if necessary. Rumler was with St. Louis in the National league before coming to Salt Lake, and, although he could hit, he was allowed to go. Bill was a catcher at that time, and his experience as an outfielder was so limited that St. Louis did not care to take a chance

Bill is no Tris Speaker as a fielder yet, but he improved greatly with stendy work last year and this year he should be still better. He is a corking right-handed hitter, one of the kind who drives in runs, and if he does go to Boston he may stick on
