

SCHULDERMAN OUT FOR SECRETARYSHIP

Corporation Commissioner in Republican Race.

PAST RECORD POINTED OUT

Lincoln Day Dinner Next Thursday. Jay Upton of Prineville Announces for State Senator.

Henry J. Schulderman, corporation commissioner, is the latest to announce his candidacy for the republican nomination for secretary of state. Others who are in the race are Ben F. Jones, Chauncey Butler, Sam Koser, M. Vernon Parsons and E. L. Colburn. Mr. Schulderman was appointed corporation commissioner by Governor Withycombe in 1915 and in 1917 was reappointed for the four-year term. A native Oregonian, Mr. Schulderman was born in Portland in 1873 and received his education at the Couch school and the Bishop Scott academy. At one time he was manager of the Merchants Express & Transportation company, operating between Portland

Henry J. Schulderman, corporation commissioner, seeks secretary of state office.

Past Record Pointed Out

In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Schulderman makes the following statement: "If nominated for secretary of state and elected at the general election, I shall conduct the office on strictly business lines, cutting down expenses wherever possible and securing economy and efficiency as I have done in the office of corporation commissioner."

"The secretary of state is a member of the board of control, and as such has many important duties. Should I become a member of that body, I shall also exert my influence to conduct the state's affairs and institutions also upon a strictly business basis, eliminating waste and extravagance and spending the money raised through taxation to the very best advantage."

"In submitting my candidacy for the nomination for secretary of state to the republican voters, I wish to point to my record in reducing expenses in the office of corporation commissioner, to my familiarity with important business matters and to my experience as an executive acquired in the conduct of that office. If the republican voters will examine minutely my past record and qualifications, I am content to leave my candidacy in their hands."

"Enclosed please find check for $7.50 for five reservations for the Lincoln day dinner," writes M. E. Gage, a Clatskanie merchant, to Secretary Cochran of the republican state central committee. "I wish very much to attend as my father was a neighbor of Abe Lincoln."

Captain A. W. Gowen, civil war veteran of Burns, who was personally acquainted with the martyred president, has also secured a reservation for the dinner, which will be given in the Chamber of Commerce dining room at 6:30 o'clock next Thursday, under the joint auspices of the republican state and county central committees. The dinner will be attended by both men and women. Tickets are $1.50 each and can be obtained at 308 Wilcox building, or from any member of the general committee.

Rev. W. S. Gilbert of Astoria, chairman of the 24 Oregon, and Mrs. Elizabeth B. Hanley of Medford, who took an active part in carrying Oregon for Hughes in 1916, will divide the speaking honors of the evening. There will be a programme of music.

Jay Upton of Prineville, who has just retired after two terms as president of the Oregon irrigation congress, will be a candidate at the primaries for the republican nomination for state senator from the district comprising Klamath, Lake, Deschutes, Jefferson and Crook counties. "My reason for making an announcement at this time," said Mr. Upton, "is to set at rest rumors that I might run for some other office. I do not intend to make any campaign for the office. "My efforts during the past five years to secure the irrigation of the vast areas of arid land in central Oregon and as a good roads booster have
