WOMEN AROUSED BY VACCINATION ORDER

Protest Registered With City Health Officer.

TEST CASE IS INVITED

Parrish Answers Threat of Invok ing Court Aid by Saying That Suit Is Welcome.

Attempts that are being made in some parts of the city to prevent the enforcement in the schools of the vaccination order recently laid down Presidents of Two Universities and by state and city health boards will not gain any modification of that order, according to Dr. George Parrish, city health officer. If the issue is taken into the courts, as is being threatened, it will be contested at every step.

Dr. Parrish said last night that the rule that children must remain out of school where a case of smallpox develops, unless they submit to vaccination, is amply justified and predicted that its strict enforcement will put an end to the prevalence of the disease. He told the same thing

He also stated he has received no official protest from any part of the city.
Dr. Parrish said the women had mentioned knowing of bad results from vaccinations this year and he invited them to tell him of a specific which he might investigate. But She Didn't Know.

"The woman then told me that she didn't know for sure and that she had only heard about the case," said Dr. Parrish. "I told them we intend to insist upon vaccination or have the Though the lecture was not schedonly heard about the case," said Dr. Parrish. "I told them we intend to insist upon vaccination or have the parents keep their children at home II days. They told me I had no right to deprive the children of school and asked what I was going to do about providing classes for those who stayed out. In a statement issued yesterday by George Morris, vice-president of the Oregon State Health Defense league, the public is apprised of the fact that because of no compulsory vaccination law on the statute books of Oregon the authorities cannot prevent attendance at school of children who are not vaccinated.

A not illogical result of the financial movements of the week, which have in-cinded a further tightening of money rates, has been a more sharply defined policy of conservatism and caution in various mer-cantile and industrial channels and a dis-position to proceed more slowly in making forward commitments.

because of the testorm, the market traffic, caused by the storm, the market opened at gains of 1 to 7 points for many of the better-known issues, the rally being based largely on further betterment, shown by foreign exchange.

Much of the early rise resulted from abort covering and as soon as that movement had run its course leaders promptly reacted. By midday, when call money ruled at 17 per cent, pressure of a professional character was resumed, all early gains being ruplaced by extreme losses of to 17 points in speculative issues and 2 to 5 among more stable shares.

When it became evident in the final hour that the usual Friday demand for call money over the week-end would not materialise loans fell by rapid stages to 10 per cent and the entire list shot briskly upward.

Stock that featured the acute depression of the mid-session, such as General Motors, Crucible Steel, equipments, oils, American Woolen and shippings railied with such celerity as to indicate that the recovery derived much of its impetus from the shorts.

Bonds were heavy as stocks were falling, but retrieved much of their loss when buying of liberty and victory issues restored recent losses. Other domestic issues were irregular with internationals. Sales, par value, aggregated $13,673,000, Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.
