O.-W. R. & N. MANAGER SAYS MEN AREN'T DISSATISFIED.

Walkout Not Intended So Far as He Knows.

So far as has been heard in Port-land, there has been no definite move on the part of unions affiliated with the railroad brotherhoods in the west

"There has been no sign, thus lar, on any of our lines as to dissatisfaction among the men," said Mr. Buckley. "The only thing whatever that I have seen is the little fracas on the electric division of the Milwaukee clectric division of the Milwaukee purely last week, and that seemed purely last week, and that seemed purely last week, and that seemed purely last last week.

any kind that there is to be a general strike unless certain demands of the railroad brotherhoods are met," said Federal Manager Davidson of the Southern Pacific. "Of course, it may be that a poil has been or is being taken among them to determine what taken among them to determine what shall be done in this or that case, but I have no knowledge of any grievance or feeling on the part of the employes

DIRECTOR THOMAS LAUDED

Stand Against Catholics Commend- principal outside speakers. H. W. A. ed by Pythian Lodge

Commendation of the action of chool Director George B. Thomas in taking a stand against the employnent of Catholic teachers in the pub-ic schools of the city is expressed in a resolution adopted by Phalanx lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, at its last meeting, as follows: "Whereas, We note that School Director Thomas has openly declared his intention to support the public schools of Portland from all religious domination and propaganda, and es-pecially the election of teachers af-filiated with any church who would be given an opportunity to advance the policies of any church which is antagonistic to our public school system: therefore,

"Be it resolved, That this lodge does hereby unanimously and heartly indorse the position taken by School Director Thomas and the sentiments expressed by him, and

"Resolved, That we congratulate the citizens of Portland on having a ol director who has shown l self courageous enough to stand by

PUPILS DESERT SCHOOLS

Anti-Vaccination Fight in Marshfield Reaches Climax. MARSHFIELD, Or., Feb. 8 .- (Special.)—The public schools of Marsh-field will be depleted in attendance when they open this morning, according to reports following the closing Friday night. The time limit for vac-cination against smallpox ends with opening tomorrow morning, and all children attending are required to have compiled with the laws govern-ing certificates of vaccination. Teachers in many departments reported wholesale desertions by children, who took their books home with them on Friday at close of school hours, District Attorney John F. Hall, besieged with questions from each side of the controversy, prepared an opinion regarding the situation, and declares the law is sound.

JACKSON RAIN DEFICIENT

January Reported as Dryest Month on Record in District.

MEDFORD, Or., Feb. 8 .- According to the monthly report of the weather bureau, January was the dryest month in the history of southern Oregon, less than half an inch of rain falling. The average for the month was 4.29 Inches As the precipitation has been deficient since the beginning of the rainy season, farmers and fruit raisers are becoming worried and an added impetus has been applied to the campaign for irrigation. The price of water under the pro-posed irrigation district will be $125 an acre, but with the increased cost in farm products the conviction is gaining ground that to obtain water at this price will be a measure of true

M. J. Buckley Declares General When the complete membership of the local club has been completed a meeting will be called to perfect a permanent organization. The organization then will be a part of the Leonard Wood club of Oregon.

Mr. Tooze will go to Marshfield to-the railroad brotherhoods in the west looking toward a general strike, such as seems to have been threatened in the east and as reported in dispatches from Washington.

M. J. Buckley, general manager of the O.-W. R. & N. company, said yesterday that thus far he has heard nothing of such a move, although he has been in unusually close touch with certain organizations of men within the past few weeks.

"There has been no sign, thus far, on any of our lines as to dissatisfactors."

I have received no intimation of mobile from his congregation to re-
