Conspiracy Trial.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 9.— Senator Truman H. Newberry's cor-respondence regarding the gold star club, organized by Thomas O'Brien, ex-ambassador to Japan, and other citizens of Grand Rapids, were intro-duced as evidence today in the trial of the senator and 122 others on charges of conspiracy in the 1918 election.

In addition there was a telegram from Frederick P. Smith, manager of the Newberry estate in Detroit, to Commander Newberry in New York regarding election expense, and another of the defendants was quoted as saying before the general election; We are going to get a real barrel

The letters which mentioned Ambassador O'Brien were introduced while Claude T. Hamilton, chairman of the Kent county republican com-mittee, was on the stand. The de-fense tried vainly to exclude them because they were written in Sep-tember, 1919, more than a year after Budget Excess Mentioned. The first letter mailed to Wash-ington by Hamilton September 13, 1919, said that the county committee's budget had been exceeded in the cam-paign of the year before and that Hamilton "had to put up for the de-fleit." It continued, in part: "We ficit." It continued, in part: "We formed the gold star club, sending out a letter to each soldier's family in the county. This letter was signed by members who had lost sons or relatives in the war. It had a tremen-dous influence and was exclusively for the senatorial campaign. The cost was $330, and I would be very glad if you would see that this was re-funded."

The letter said that "Ambassador O'Brien, who is now in Washington, was familiar with this matter, in fact, he served on the sub-committee which put this over."

Newberry's Reply Cited. Senator Newberry replied five days

"It seems that I should not contribute . . . as I subscribed to the state central committee all that the law allows."

He added that he would consult Ambassador O'Brien "and see if some friend can be found" to help. The correspondence indicated that the senator and the ambassador did not meet

A few days later Hamilton said be received from Detroit a check for $350 signed by the Newberry estate. "Did you reimburse yourself for the $350?" asked Mr. Dailey.
"No sir, I put up for a deficit which amounted altogether to $500."

"What did you do with the check?" Where did the money go?"

Director-General, With Turnover Coming Soon, Averse to Saddling New Load on Owners.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Belief that Director-General Hines will refuse to grant the wage increases demanded by more than 2,000,000 railroad workers continued to grow today. As the union officials prepared for what rail-road administration officials declared likely would be the last conference tomorrow, indications were strong that z bare concession of adjustment of alleged inequalities in pay would be the sum total of changes permitted in the present wage agreements.

Representatives of the workers have prepared a registerment of their

a counter-proposition to the views of Mr. Hines. The conferees held only a brief ses-sion because preparation of the union argument and claims had not been a meeting in Paris on May 12 of last year.

At that time general plans were made for the working of the consortium on the following principles:

That no country should attempt to cultivate special spheres of influence.

That all existing options held by a member of any of the national groups should, so far as possible, be turned into the consortium as a whole.

That the four banking groups of the countries in question should act together in concert and in an effective partnership for the interests of China and that the consortium's creases in wages would bring higher road employes be refused. Mr. Hines
