CHARGE OF KIDNAPING FACED .- J. C. Alton will face a charge of kidnaping in the circuit court today, being held by the grand jury as responsible for the disappearance of 7-year-old Ruth Johnson from her home in Sellwood Sunday, September 29, 1919. The Sunday. September 20, 1919. The youngster was missed from her home about 2:30 in the afternoon and her father, J. A. Johnson, a blacksmith, started in search of her. At 6:30 she was discovered in a deserted house four blocks from her home, with hid. Alton, an elderly man, who had bought her some ice cream. He re-sisted the attempt of Johnson to take his daughter and Patrolman J. A. Holden was forced to fire a shot at him before he would submit to arrest, it is asserted. - Deputy District Attorney Deich reported that num-erous complaints had been made erous complaints had been made against Alton for annoying little
