JOHN H. BROWN DIES

John H. Brown, 72 years of age and resident of Portland for the past 16 years, died at the family home, 729 East Ankeny street, Tuesday evening.

DEATH THREAT CAUSES ARREST

Charged with threatening to kill Bertina Goodson, 58, Raleigh street, and also with carrying concealed weapons, Alfons Verhaeghe was arrested at Eighteenth and Raleigh streets yesterday afternoon by Detectives Gordon and Wright.

TRADE RESTRAINT BEING PROBED

A hearing by W. T. Roberts, a special attorney for the federal trade commission, was given A. J. Bale, manager of the Pacific Coast Biscuit company, yesterday to determine whether or not the system of discounting used by the National Biscuit company of which the local concern is a part, ties up retailers in the company.

CONYER PAYS REWARD FOR ARREST

Multnomah county commissioner yesterday awarded the $50 standard reward for arrest and conviction of persons dumping rubbish on a public highway in the county to Frank M. Olds, employe on the Interstate bridge, who caused the arrest of Alva Dawes a few weeks ago for dumping trash along the Derby street approach to the bridge. Dawes was fined $50 in the district court.

LONGSHORE WORKER INJURED

John J. Sorenson, 323 Deception street, received an injured head and fractured leg yesterday afternoon in an accident at the elevator dock, foot of Russell street, where he was employed in unloading a ship. One of the loading booms broke and Sorenson was caught on the leg by the cable. He was taken to Good Samaritan hospital.

REVENGE BELIEVED MOTIVE FOR MURDER

Prohibition law explained.—The workings of the new national prohibition law were explained by Johnson C. Smith in an address delivered at the regular monthly luncheon and meeting of the Portland Retail Druggists' association at the Chamber of Commerce last night.

WOMEN, LIQUOR AND MONEY ALL ENTER POLICE THEORIES.

Revenge is given as the most plausible theory for the disappearance of Ernest Descamps, wealthy farmer and former proprietor of a north end establishment, in the opinion of John Goltz, lieutenant of detectives, who is heading the investigation of the murder mystery surrounding the discovery of portions of a human body in Sullivan's gulch and Kenton.

NOTED ACTOR RETURNS IN REVIVAL OF "THE AUCTIONEER"

One of the notable events of the dramatic calendar will be celebrated at the Helling tonight and for the remainder of the week when David Warfield will present "The Auctioneer," the comedy by Lee Arthur and Charles Klein, which 15 years ago made Mr. Warfield conspicuous among the greatest character actors of the day.
