

MOTHERS TO GET ALL DATA ON DEATH ACT

Pamphlet to Present Both Views of Penalty.

COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

Arguments on Other Questions to Be Submitted at May 21 Election Will Be Included.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 12.—(Special)—As a result of an agreement reached at the recent special session of the legislature the voters' pamphlet, to be issued by the secretary of state some time prior to the special election to be held on May 21, will contain arguments both for and against the restoration of capital punishment in Oregon.

The original amendment referring to the people of the state the proposal to restore the death penalty carried provision for an affirmative argument, but upon request of Eugene Smith, representative from Multnomah county, both the house and senate voted to include the negative argument.

The committee named to prepare the affirmative argument is composed of Senator B. L. Eddy, of Douglas county, and Representative K. K. Kubli and David F. Lotgren of Multnomah county. Senator W. H. Strayer of Baker county, Representative Alexander Thompson of Hood River county and Eugene Smith of Multnomah county will prepare the argument in the negative.

Other committees appointed by the president of the senate and speaker of the house to prepare arguments to be included in the pamphlet favoring the various constitutional amendments and measures to be submitted to the people for approval or rejection at the May election follow.

Constitutional amendment extending eminent domain over roads and ways—Senator Thomas E. Handley of Tillamook county and Representatives Louis E. Bean of Lane county and W. V. Fuller of Polk county.

Constitutional amendment limitation of 4 per cent indebtedness for permanent roads—Senators P. L. Eddy of Douglas county and Louis Lombard of Marion county and Representatives W. H. Gore of Jackson county, Loyal M. Graham of Washington county and James Stewart of Wheeler county.

Crook and Curry county bonding amendment—Senators George T. Eastwin of Klamath county, Colon R. Eberhard of Union county and Representatives Denton G. Burdick of Redmond and T. J. Thrift of Coos county.

Governor Issue Included. Constitutional amendment providing for successor to governor—Senators Moser and W. W. Banks of Multnomah county, Representatives John B. Coffey and C. C. Lewis of Multnomah county and D. E. Woodson of Heppner.

Soldiers' sailors' and marines' educational aid revenue bill—Senators Walter M. Pierce of Union county and I. S. Smith of Coos county and Representatives David M. Graham of Lane county, Ivan G. Martin of Marion county and Cyril G. Brownell of Umatilla county.

No arguments in the pamphlet were authorized for the higher educational tax act, state elementary school fund and the blind school measure. These pamphlets will be printed as soon as the necessary copy is received and will be sent to every voter in the state. Only those arguments received at the secretary of state's office before March 1 will be printed in the pamphlet, according to Sam A. Kosor, assistant secretary of state, who is in charge of preparing the booklet for distribution.

EX-EMPEROR TO VISIT U. S.

LAST OF MANCHUS TO BE EDUCATED IN AMERICA.

Chinese Editor During Stay in San Francisco Discusses Plans for Future of Hsuan Tung.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—(Special)—Yates M. Wang, one of the editors of the oldest paper published in China, the Daily Shun Pao of Shanghai, who is at the St. Francis hotel on his way to Rio de Janeiro, gives some interesting sidelights about the boy-ex-emperor of China, the last of the Manchus, Hsuan Tung, and of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, one of the founders of the Chinese republic.

"The boy-ex-emperor," said Editor Wang, "is still living in the forbidden city of Peking, where he is being taken care of and educated by the Chinese government. He is now about 15 years old, and there is already a discussion among the government authorities as to when they shall send him to the United States to receive a modern college education. The presumption is that within the next two years he will be sent to America, to a preparatory school in order to qualify him to enter Stanford university or Harvard."

The visitor thinks very highly of the character of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, although admitting that the latter has lost much of his influence during the last few years with the Chinese people. He considers him a warm champion of the republic and believes that he is doing all he can to heal the troubles between North and South China.

Mr. Wang, who was educated at George Washington university in this country, has come here to be a traveling correspondent for his paper.

BUILDING HOPES KILLED

Congress Will Not Receive Bill Providing Oregon Structures.

OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 12.—(Special)—There is no chance for Oregon to obtain a public building by act of the present session of congress, according to information that reached here today from Representative Hawley, who states that the committee on public buildings and grounds has decided that neither an omnibus bill nor any special bill would be reported at this session.

Oregon City has been striving to obtain an appropriation for a federal building for many years. During the war congress declined to entertain the idea of appropriating money for new public buildings, and in view of the action of the committee of this congress, opportunity to obtain a public building is lost here until the next session of congress at least.

CO-OPERATIVE BANKS URGED BY PLUMB

Farm-Labor Congress Hears Wealth Control Berated.

TREASURY RULING DECIED

Speaker Charges Right of People to Govern Seives Menaced by Sedition Laws.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Co-operative banking to keep the money of the farmers and workmen within their own ranks, was one of the wants which most of the speakers voiced today before the American farmer-labor congress. Glenn E. Plumb, author of the Plumb plan for tri-partite control of railroads, discussed the "sinister concentration in the control of the country's business."

Chains of co-operative stores with a highly systematized method of operation was advocated by Duncan McDonald, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor.

Store System Described. These stores, he argued, could have the benefit of central buying and general supervision. There should be a simple and uniform system of book-keeping, and the whole fabric of business should be made proof against dishonesty by the bonding of the store managers, he said.

O. C. Trask said the maintenance of way employes and railroad shop workers have five factories turning out products for them at less than wholesale prices. Co-operative buying gave members of this union a 30 to 40 per cent reduction on other products, he said.

"We turn out good socks for 25 cents a pair in our hosiery factory," he said, "and the law has undertaken to declare that an injustice to property or an act of hate against property constitutes sedition against the government."

"The people have the inalienable, unalterable and indefensible right to change or alter their form of government whenever the happiness, peace and prosperity of the people require it," he said. "That unalterable right is now threatened. It must be preserved."

"I'M A WELL AND HAPPY WOMAN NOW"

Mrs. Gates Was All Run Down and Had No Appetite—Restored Health by Tanlac.

"Tanlac did so much for my husband that I began taking it, and now I am happy to say that it has completely restored me to health also," was the statement made recently by Mrs. Florence M. Gates of 639 East Avenue 44, Los Angeles.

"My health has been extremely poor for nearly a year," she said, "and I felt so tired and worn-out all the time that I went about expecting to give out just any day. My muscles ached and I had a constant pain in my back. I had such a poor appetite that often I would go to the table and get up and leave without eating no more than two or three bites. I lost weight, my complexion turned yellow, and I became so weak that my housework was a burden. Besides these troubles I was going through that period that taxes a woman's strength almost beyond endurance."

"As I said, my husband had taken Tanlac with such wonderful results that I decided to try it, and right from the first few doses I began to improve. My appetite returned and now I am enjoying my meals because everything agrees with me. The pains in my muscles and back have all disappeared. I can now do my housework without any trouble at all. My complexion has cleared up, and I am gaining in weight every day and I am enjoying my life. My husband praises Tanlac all the time, and since it has done so much for me I feel it my duty to tell others about this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Portland by the Owl Drug Co.—Adv.

Sedition Legislation Attacked. Mr. Plumb vigorously attacked pending sedition legislation "as the law has undertaken to declare that an injustice to property or an act of hate against property constitutes sedition against the government."

"The people have the inalienable, unalterable and indefensible right to change or alter their form of government whenever the happiness, peace and prosperity of the people require it," he said. "That unalterable right is now threatened. It must be preserved."
