CHARGE OVER CHICKENS ADJUDICATED—Through held by District Judge Hawkins to be technically guilty of assault by forcibly removing Mrs. Louisa Mooney from a hen-house where she was engaged in placing chickens in a gully sack, sentence was continued against B. Winfield real estate man, yesterday. Mrs. Mooney, who lives at 4509 Sixty-sixth street southeast, assured Judge Hawkins that they were her chickens, but Winfield insisted that there was a lien against them and that she had been forbidden to take possession until the claim had been paid. The trouble took place February 6. Deputy District Attorney Maguire conducted the prosecution.

VISITOR DIES SUDDENLY—Just as he was about to conclude a visit of eight weeks with his children in Portland, Stephen A. Inman, well-known railroad man of Colorado Springs, Colo., died here February 12. The funeral was held Tuesday from Holman's chapel and burial was in Rose City cemetery. With his wife, Mrs. Inman came to Portland two months ago to visit his three sons, Arthur A., Alvah L. and Lyman R. Inman. The widow has returned to Colorado Springs to arrange her business affairs and later will return to make her home in this city.

RAILWAY COMPANY GETS VERDICT—A verdict in favor of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company was returned yesterday by a jury in the court of Circuit Judge Bingham of Salem, sitting in Portland, in a $25,000 damage suit brought by Jack Harper for injuries received in a collision between a motorcycle he was riding and a one-ton street car on East Seventh and Multnomah streets on August 14, 1919. Harper had contended that the "bob-tailed" car was a menace to public safety and had been traveling at an unreasonable rate of speed.

WIFE FAILS TO PROVE CHARGE—Failure of Mrs. Conrad Siltner to substantiate charges she made against her husband in securing his indictment by the Multnomah county grand jury, led to a verdict of not guilty in his trial for non-support in the court of Circuit Judge Gaten yesterday. She has five children and had complained on three different occasions to the office of the district attorney that her husband had not supported her. The court of domestic relations will be asked to investigate the case.

ALLEGED COUNTERFEITERS TO BE TAKEN TO LOS ANGELES—United States Marshal Alexander and two deputies will leave tonight for Los Angeles with R. L. Powell and wife and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Powell are under indictment there for their alleged participation in a nationwide plot for making counterfeit railroad passes and selling them. Powell is alleged to have been the ringleader in this plot and upon his arrest in Portland a week ago by William Bryon of the department of justice, made a partial confession.

PENNSYLVANIANS TO MEET—The annual dinner and election of officers of the University of Pennsylvania alumni of Oregon will take place tomorrow night at the University club at 6:30 o'clock. Professor Ralph R. Ross of Reed college will speak on "Benjamin Franklin—the Typical American of the 18th Century," and Dr. W. F. Bishop will read a paper. Welch, brigadier, employed by the Portland Railway, Light & Power company in work on their bridge across the Clackamas river at Garfield accidentally slipped and fell 30 feet yesterday morning to the ground. He was taken to St. Vincent's hospital where he was reported to be suffering from an injured back and injury to the right arm and left leg. He is believed not seriously hurt.

Shaw of Washington State college will give an illustrated lecture on "The Ground Squirrels of the Columbia Basin," before the Oregon Audubon society tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in library hall. Hotchkiss, on "Washington and Americanism," and Lieutenant James J. Crowley on "Washington, the Statesman." The luncheon will be held at the Elizabethan room of the Imperial hotel this week, instead of at the crystal room of the Benson, as is usually the case.

PERFUME MAINLY ALCOHOL—Frank Briley apparently had a taste for the sweet things in drink for when he was arrested by Patrolman Patrick Third and Ankeny streets Wednesday night he carried a bottle of perfume which contained 65 per cent alcohol. He was given a four months suspended sentence on a charge of drunkenness by Municipal Judge Rosenman.

EPIDEMIC LESS SERIOUS—The influenza situation in Klamath Falls remains serious according to word yesterday to State Health Officer Hoberg. No detailed account of new cases had been received up to a late hour last night, but a telephone message from City Health Officer Soule indicated that the disease had not yet reached the crest. In Portland 94 new cases were reported with four deaths attributed to the disease. This is slightly below the average daily number of new cases and indicates, according to City Health Officer Parrish, that the end of the epidemic is in sight.

YOUTHS ARE RELEASED—There being no charge against Paul Movingdon and Bob Brenner, who had been held in the city jail for three days, both were released by Presiding Circuit Judge McCourt yesterday afternoon on a writ of habeas corpus obtained by their attorney, W. C. Campbell. The young men had been arrested for selling lace samples valued at about $25 and the property of a firm for which they were working on the complaint of local business men but no formal charge was brought against them and the house they represented did not care to prosecute.

FORESTERS MEET AT BAKER—Supervisors and assistant foresters from the district office in Portland will be in Baker today attending a conference of eastern Oregon and Washington supervisors. The session will probably cover five days. MEAT TO BE RETAILED
 Portland Markets Get Fresh Frozen U. S. Army Beef.

Portland's share of the fresh frozen beef which is to be sold throughout the United States under the auspices of the army retail stores will be sold through the local retail markets, and not at the Portland store, it has been announced. The meat is authorized for sale to the retail stores at a price 20 per cent below the Chicago quotations on the day of delivery.

Three of the local markets already have purchased one carload each of the meat, as follows: Pacific market, 185 Fourth street; C. L. Parker, 189 Fourth street; Ray Fairchild, 226 Yamhill street. When this meat arrives the price that these merchants are paying for it will be reported to the mayor and the city authorities will be asked to see that the meat is sold to the public at a retail price in keeping with the wholesale figure at which it was purchased. If the people of Portland take advantage of the first offerings of this meat additional quantities will be secured from time to time by the local quartermaster department for the retail stores, it is announced.
