J. R. Welty, 72, Drops Dean—While at the Union depot about 10 A. M. yesterday to meet a Mr. Joy, a friend from Chehalis, Wash., J. R. Welty, 759 Hancock street, dropped dead from an attack of heart disease. Born in Illinois 72 years ago, Mr. Welty lived for many years at Chehalis, Wash., where he was connected with the federal land office. He was for two terms a state senator from the state of Washington and was a fire warden. He had lived in this city for six years. Mr. Welty is survived by his widow. The date of the funeral has not yet been settled, pending the arrival of relatives from the east. Mr. Welty was a member of the First Congregational church of the First Congregational church of the First Congregational church of the gabove the knee yesterday morning when he was struck by an automobile driven by C. G. Blensdale, 250 Alder street, on Lownsdale street between Alder and Morrison streets. The bow was taken to the police emergency hospital and later to the St. Vincent's hospital by the Arrow Ambulance company. According to the report made to the police by Mr. Bleasdale the boy was coasting down hill when he fell off the coaster in front of the automobile. Mr. Bleasdale the boy was driving south on Lownsdale street at the time.
