Charges to Be Dropped Against Mrs. Winifree.

MOST MONEY RECOVERED

Attorney for Aurora Bank Says He Is Not in Favor of Pressing Any Action.

Charges against Mrs. Emma Winl-free, 23-year-old divorces, and her former husband, P. W. Winlfree, now under arrest in connection with the theft of $6500 in currency from the Aurora State bank probably will not be pressed, according to announcement made last night by Grant B. Dimick of Oregon City, attorney for the bank.
The question of prosecution has been left to Mr. Dimick by officers of the bank, but Mr. Dimick said he was not ready to make a definite announcement as to the action to be taken until he had conferred with the directors. Personally, however, he said he was not in favor of the prosecution, now that the big ma-jority of the money had been re-toyeted.

Buried Money Found.

Mr. Winifree was taken to his farm near Bull Run yesterday by Burns operatives who have been working on the case and the $1500 which he said was buried in the cellar, there was recovered. This, with the $3000 recovered on Winifree at the time of his arrest, and the recovery of the $1500 paid on the 14-acre farm on the Base Line road by the couple makes a total of $6000 recovered.

Bank officials say the total loss to the bank probably will be $400 or $500 when the matter is finally ad-

$500 when the matter is finally adjusted.

Mrs. Winifree is being beld at the home of Sheriff Wilson at Oregon City and Winifree is at the Clackamas county jail. Both have expressed the desire to have the matter cleared up and to assist the authorities.

In discussing the case yesterday Mr. Dimick said there was a question in his mind if the man could be held responsible in any way for the theft. He also said he questioned if any good would come of punishing the woman for the crime.

"After a conference with directors

"After a conference with directors of the bank tomorrow I will be in a position to announce just what steps will be taken in the matter," he said. Original Story Held To.

Mr. Dimick said that Winifree held o his original story that he did not know where his former wife got the "I am inclined to believe him," he said, "as he has been perfectly frank with us in other matters. Of course with us in other matters. Or course he must have had a strong suspicion that everything was not just right."

Dr. B. F. Glesy, president of the bank, said that Mrs. Winifree was given employment at the bank temporarily more as a matter of pity than for any other reason. for any other reason.

"She had just come out of the hos-pital at that time and was in need of employment," he said. "She appeared to us a nice, innocent girl in need of assistance."

Dr. Glesy said that Mrs. Winifree was ill for a time while she was visiting at Aurora, suffering from an

OF FICERS INVESTIGATE

District Attorney and Sheriff Have

No Report of Robbery.

SALEM, Or., March 11.—(Special.)

—Max Gehlhar, district attorney of Marien county, today started an investigation of the case involving Mrs. Emma Winifree, who is being detained in jail in Portland on a charge tained in jail in Portland on a charge of stealing approximately $6500 from the Aurora State bank.

Although Aurora is located in Marion county, District Attorney Gehlhar stated this afternoon that neither the officials of the depository nor the arresting officers had made any report of the alleged theft to his office. Because of this apparent indifference on the part of the persons responsible for Mrs. Winifree's arrest Mr. Gehihar said he intended to communicate with the Portland officers and ascertain the facts connected and ascertain the facts connected with the alleged robbery. Should the findings of the district

Should the findings of the district attorney be such as reported in the Portland newspapers it is not improbable that Mrs. Winifree will be brought to Salem and held for investigation before the grand jury, according to Mr. Gehlhar.

Mr. Gehlhar says it is customary in cases of this character to report the facts to his office, and especially when the crime was committed in Marion county, and is said to involve Marion county, and is said to involve the taking of a large sum of money. Sheriff Needham says he also was ignorant that the Aurora bank had generated between the Bennetts came to Bandon, Coos county of the said of the sai

ALBANY, Or., March 11.—(Special.)
—Verd Hill of Independence, former representative in the legislature from Polk county, filed an answer in the state circuit court here yesterday in the case instituted by his wife, Frances G. Hill, for a divorce. He opposes ces G. Hill, for a divorce. He opposes his wife's demand for large alimony and daks for the decree and custody of their one child.

of their one child.

Mr. Hill alleges that within a few hours after they were married in 1914 she demanded a check book on his bank account. He says she told him that now that he had her it would take a lot to keep her. Mr. Hill alleges that one night when he went to sleep during a period of denunciation his wife jumped from her bed, went to the one he was occupying, and struck him several times. He also says his wife slapped his face when they were on their honey-moon trip to Honolulu.

been robbed until he read a purported statement of the facts in the Portland press.

Should the Marion county officials decide to transfer Mrs. Winifree to this city for investigation her case probably would be laid before the grand jury, which convenes here next Monday.

Bennetts came to Bandon, Coos county, and the Sherlocks went to New Zealand, and afterward to Gooselake, Or., where they became wealthy by raising sheep. Mr. Sherlock is now on his way to New Zealand to dispose of the old home property. After a short visit there he will return to Gooselake to spend his remaining days.
