

BEAVERS GET READY TO BATTLE CHICAGO

Core in Practice Game Is 6 to 2.

HARNABE PLEASES BOSS

Adapt Leshner Proves Comedian of Camp; Wes Kingdon Holds Up Promises.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

ONTARIO, Cal., March 15.—(Special)—Preparatory for tomorrow's fray with the Chicago Nationals the Portland Beavers' regulars and Yankigans staged a full all-inning game this afternoon and the team captained by Catcher Koehler won, 2 to 2.

Whether his club was the regular of the Yankigans we do not know. It would take a philosopher with the ability to steer Admiral Grayson's flagship through the straits of Italian to settle this difficult problem. Koehler had the regular outfield, while Del Baker's bat order showed all the regular infielders on deck. Wes Kingdon, who had a couple of regular pitchers in the garden.

Leshner Camp Comedian. Every camp has its comedian, and the Wrigley asbestos chewing trophy in this bivouac goes to Cadel Leshner. The young Nabranian southpaw reported in several days late with the announcement that he had been "firmed" to the coast league by Omaha.

Wes Kingdon Scores. Wes Kingdon drove out a two-bag knock and scored one of the two Baker registrations. The score: R. H. E. Koehler's Base... 10010022-6 12 1

CUBS BEAT COAST ANGELS. Chicago Collects 16 Hits Off Trio of Los Angeles Pitchers.

LOS ANGELES, March 15.—(Special)—Wes Kingdon, who led the Chicago Cubs at Washington park yesterday in their first appearance in Los Angeles this year. The score was 2 to 4, and the game was more cagey than all trades.
