

SOCIETY NEWS

THE Arcadian garden of the Multnomah hotel was the scene of an elaborate dinner-dance last night on the occasion of the reopening of the grill after extensive alterations. The setting was one of the most beautiful possible, the decorators having completed their work with exquisite taste and skill. The walls and ceiling are a blending of pale green and silver in a decidedly rich effect. Altogether the transformation has made of the Arcadian gardens a place of entertainment and good cheer in which Portland may take pride.

There were many large parties in the grill last night and all of the tables were reserved days ago. Society was well represented. So many desired to attend that Eric V. Hauser, proprietor of the Multnomah, decided to continue the opening dinner tonight and tomorrow night, with the assurance that even the large capacity of the Arcadian gardens will not be sufficient to meet the demand for reservations.

One of the larger no-host parties was in compliment of Mrs. Walter A. Scott of San Francisco, who is the guest of Mrs. John H. Hayden. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. William Burdard, Mr. and Mrs. M. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly, Mrs. Ned Ayer, Mrs. Scott, Miss Roberta Blair, Miss Isabella Clark, Miss Dorothy Strowbridge, Frank Sullivan, Alfred Sultivan, Herbert Brandt, Beverly Clark, Alfred Clark, Carl Pevering of Pendleton, Gustave van Rooendaal and Alfred Whitmer.

McGreger, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Zan, Dr. and Mrs. James Zan, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Smith, Mrs. Morris Whitehouse, Mrs. Antoine Leiber, Mrs. Josephine Smith Andrews, Phillip Fry, Chester Murphy, Calhoun Johnstone and Sidney Peters.

Eric V. Hauser was one of the hosts of the evening, his guests including Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, Mr. and Mrs. M. Donald Spencer, Mrs. Lewis Tallman of Tacoma, Miss Lucille Bradley, also of Tacoma, and Edgar Piper Jr.

At another table Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hauser entertained Mrs. P. S. Wilcox of St. Paul and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kasper.

Andrew Porter was host for one of the large parties, when his guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Porter, Miss Edna Tilton, Miss Sarah Patrick, Miss Margaret Raeder, Miss Katherine Burdard, J. A. McHolland, J. D. O'Donnell and M. Conroy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hofmann were hosts for a party of eight, when couples were laid for Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ancker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Smith, Mayer and Mrs. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Hofmann.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Edwards had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCarr, Miss Bernice Baugdon, Miss Marjorie Hall, Sherman W. Edwards and John Riley.

A no-host party of 10 covers included Mr. and Mrs. Paul DeHass, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colt, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gadeby.

House "G" men of the Reed college dormitory will be hosting Saturday night at a formal dance in the college assembly. The men have been preparing elaborate decorations and plans of entertainment and the dance will be the last big social event before the "junior week end," April 30. The "G" affair will be the last of the series of entertainments by the men's houses and is the first attempted by "G". The men of the house are Oscar Sorenson, Hans Thorslein, Herbert Benson, Arthur McLean, Clinton Wilson, Glenn Quillet, Craig Elliot, Alvin Pearson, William Goodenough, Jacob Holzman, Herbert Swett and Carl Lindstrom.

Patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson, Mr. Wooddy and his niece.

Miss Edwina Williams became the bride of John Edward Tucker at 11:45 yesterday morning at a smart home wedding at the residence of the bridegroom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Tucker, on Hoyt street.

The bride wore a navy blue tulle-trimmed Russian blouse with a small black hat with tan feathers and a corsage bouquet of orchids.

The service was read by Dr. Oswald W. Taylor in the presence of the immediate family and was followed by a wedding breakfast.

Dr. and Mrs. Tucker's home was a bower of spring flowers, an altar was made in front of the fireplace in the drawing-room, which was all in yellow, while the breakfast table was in pink.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Williams and, like the bridegroom, belongs to the pioneer families of Portland.

After a wedding trip to Seattle, the young people will make their home in Frisco, a few miles from Garden Home.
