

IRISH HOME RULE RESERVATION WINS

Senate Votes Sympathy for Aspirations.

"POLITICS," BORAH SHOUTS

Measure Gets 21 Democratic, 17 Republican Votes.

ROLLCALL SHOWS LINEUP

Several Senators Absent, Paired. Reported Favorable—Ratification Vote Today Expected.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Proceeding under forced draft to reach a final ratification of the peace treaty tomorrow, the senate broke from control of the republican leaders today and unexpectedly swept into the republican reservation programme a declaration of sympathy for self-government of Ireland.

The proposal won out in committee of the whole by a vote of 38 to 25 after an all-day debate. On a necessary second vote this action was confirmed, 45 to 28.

During the debate democratic leaders supported the reservation and the managers on the republican side opposed it because it included a general declaration that this nation adhered to the principle of self-determination of peoples. On the first rollcall 21 democrats and 17 republicans, including the irreconcilable foes of the treaty, voted for adoption, while 20 republicans and 15 democrats were recorded in the negative.

Vote Tonight Predicted.

An attempt to secure unanimous consent that a vote be taken on ratification of the peace treaty tomorrow was blocked by Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin, leader of the mild reservationists, and the senate adjourned after 11 P. M. Most leaders predicted that a final vote would be reached late tomorrow night.

Revelation of the Irish question prolonged into the night the senate's task of putting into final form the resolution of ratification upon which it is planned to bring a vote tomorrow. One after another long list of miscellaneous reservations was voted down, with the leaders bent on completing their task before adjournment.

Lodge Greatly Displeased.

The outcome of the ratification vote was not generally regarded as having been influenced by the day's developments, though a number of republicans counted on to vote to ratify, including Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, party leader, expressed bitter disapproval of the Irish reservation in its final form. On all sides the prediction was made that the treaty would fail to receive the necessary two-thirds, though some senators thought that on a second rollcall, which probably will be taken before an attempt to ratify is given up, enough democrats to put it through would join the majority.

The text of the Irish reservation, as introduced by Senator Gerry, democrat of Rhode Island, and adopted by the senate, follows:

"In consenting to the ratification of the treaty with Germany the United States adheres to the principle of self-determination and to the resolution of sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a government of their own choice adopted by the senate June 6, 1919, and declares that when self-government is attained by Ireland, a consummation it is hoped is at hand, it should promptly be admitted as a member of the league of nations."

Rollcall Shows Line-up.

The rollcall on the Gerry reservation on the Irish question follows:

For adoption: Republicans—Borah, Brandegee, Capper, Cool, Curtis, France, Frelinghuysen, Gronna, Johnson of California, Jones of Washington, La Follette, McLean, McNary, Moses, Norris, Sutherland and Watson—17. Democrats—Ashurst, Gerry, Gore, Harris, Harrison, Henderson, Hitchcock, Kendrick, Kirby, McKellar, Nugent, Phelan, Pittman, Ransdell, Reed, Sheppard, Shields, Smith of Maryland, Smith of South Carolina, Walsh of Massachusetts and Walsh of Montana—21. Total for adoption, 38.

Against adoption: Republicans—Ball, Calder, Cummins, Dillingham, Edge, Elkins, Hale, Harding, Kellogg, Kenyon, Keyes, Lenroot, Lodge, New, Page, Phillips, Spencer, Sterling, Townsend and Wadsworth—20. Democrats—Beckham, Dial, Fletcher, Gray, Gresham, New Mexico, King, Myers, Pomerene, Robinson, Smith of Georgia, Swanson, Thomas, Trammell, Underwood, Williams and Wolcott—15. Total against, 35.

Several Senators Paired.

Of senators absent and paired it was announced that Senators Culberson, Johnson, South Dakota; Overman, North Carolina; Owen, Oklahoma, and Stanley, Kentucky, democrats, favored the resolution, and that Senator Fernald, republican, Maine, opposed it. The position of other senators not voting was not stated.

Additional votes for the measure on the second vote were recorded by Senators Fernald, Maine; McCormick, (Concluded on Page 15, Column 1.)

REVOLT STIRS EX-KAISER

Wilhelm Remains Awake During Nights of Berlin Excitement.

AMERONGEN, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The former German emperor remained up last night long after the others in Bentick castle had gone to bed. News of the failure of the revolution reached him in the evening.

For several days past the former ruler of Germany had been in a state of excitement over the events in Berlin. Last night he retired to his apartment early, but the lights in his wing of the castle shone through the windows until an early hour in the morning.

EBERT PARTY IS AGAIN IN CONTROL

Work of Restoring Order in Berlin Begun.

MINISTRY IS EXPECTED TODAY

Revolutionary Troops Are Marched Out of City.

VIOLENCE FEATURES EXIT

Soldiers Lined Up for Departure, Jeered by People, Finally Open Fire, Wounding Many.

BERLIN, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Ebert government is again in control in Berlin. Vice-Chancellor Schiffer, in whose hands the sudden retirement of Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, temporarily placed the administrative power, and Gustav Noske, minister of defense, are engaged in bringing about order and restoring activities to their normal basis. The full ministry is expected back in Berlin tomorrow.

Regular troops, loyal to the Ebert regime, are guarding the streets, and detachments of them spent part of the day in tearing down wire entanglements and barricades which the revolutionary soldiers had erected. There was an unfortunate accident, the firing of a mine to destroy a barricade at Kottbusser, in southeastern Berlin, killing 12 persons and injuring 28.

Troops Take Vengeance.

The Baltic troops, leaders of the insurgent bands that marched into Berlin Saturday, took vengeance on the people who hooted and jeered them in Wilhelmstrasse and Unter den Linden. They were lined up for departure from the city, and after withholding the jeers for a time more or less impatiently, they opened fire, wounding several.

After the troops had passed Brandenburg gate they fired a parting volley with machine guns, wounding a score or more, and the terrified mob rushed to the Adlon hotel, the gates of which were torn down in the ensuing panic.

New Cabinet Foreseen.

The coalition parties must construct a new cabinet, which is expected to reveal at least half a dozen new faces. Berlin Saturday, took vengeance on the people who hooted and jeered them in Wilhelmstrasse and Unter den Linden. They were lined up for departure from the city, and after withholding the jeers for a time more or less impatiently, they opened fire, wounding several.

After the troops had passed Brandenburg gate they fired a parting volley with machine guns, wounding a score or more, and the terrified mob rushed to the Adlon hotel, the gates of which were torn down in the ensuing panic.

Strikes Still Continue.

No great improvement in the economic situation is observed yet. The railway men have resumed work, but organized workers generally are concentrated on Page 3, Column 2.

REVOLT 'CAMOUFLAGE,' ASSERTS DESCHANEL

FRENCH PRESIDENT WARNS ALLIES ON GERMANY.

Fear of Resurrection of Military Ring Voiced at Luncheon to American Press.

(Copyright by the New York World, Published by Arrangement.)
PARIS, March 18.—(Special Cable.)—President Deschanel calls on America and Great Britain to hold with France to their oaths of triple friendship, if surprises to which the allies are exposed, as manifest in recent events in Germany, are not to result in loss of the fruits of victory and in danger to the peace of the world.

This is his message, directed especially to the English-speaking people, given at a luncheon to the American press.

Talking with the correspondents after his address, President Deschanel denied that France has militaristic or imperialistic tendencies, declaring she simply had prepared herself for defense against the German menace, which is pointing a revolver at her heart.

The democrats, he said, must more than ever remain united, in remembrance of the dangers of yesterday and in precaution against the dangers of tomorrow. Maintenance of the Anglo-French-American understanding, he urged, is the price and most solid guarantee of enduring peace.

His appeal to America and Great Britain is regarded here as the most important pronouncement from the responsible head of an allied government since the attempt of the Prussian militarists to regain power.

President Deschanel does not disguise his distrust of the Germans, for which he feels he has ample justification at this crisis in the world's history. His view is the one that prevails throughout France.

"Was the recent German upheaval," he asks, "a species of camouflage for the restoration of kaiserism? Or, if there is real republicanism in Germany, will it succeed in downing the militarists? And, if it should succeed by means of counter force, may we not expect communism or bolshevism next, thus presenting a new menace to the world's democracies?"

Whether the German disorders indicate camouflage or not, he is apprehensive of troubles ahead, owing to the pronounced check that German plans for readjustment have received. French official circles are apparently as much impressed with the influence of the German communists as with that of the militarists. It is urged that the allies know what to expect from the militarists, but they cannot count on the effect of communist factors in industrial conditions.

NEGRO BATTLES POLICE

Rifles Used in Two-Hour Fight With Refugee in Cellar.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 18.—After shooting two policemen, a negro was barricaded in a house on West Saratoga street early today and for two hours fought off police reserves from three districts.

In a demonstration near the house another negro suspected of being the fugitive was shot three times by police and beaten by a mob.

The battle came after two negroes had engaged in a fight in the theater district. Two policemen intervened and the fugitive negro fled, taking refuge in a cellar.

The negro shot Patrolmen Levy and Miners, both in the leg. An emergency call brought police from three districts. Rifles were used by the police in the battle with the negro.

The negro was cornered in the cellar. Hiding under a stairway, he fired at the police in the cellar while those above began chopping through the floor to reach him.

OREGON LEGION VOTE IS FOR 4-OPTION BILL

STATE DELEGATE TO NATIONAL SESSION INSTRUCTED.

Cash Adjustment Leads With Bonds Close Second at Meeting of Committeemen.

With cash or bond adjustment leading and financial aid in the building of city or country homes a close second, the executive committee of the American Legion, department of Oregon, in the most representative meeting since the state convention last November, went on record last night on the question of beneficial legislation for ex-service men.

James O. Conville, who is on his way to Washington as the appointee of State Commander William B. Felton to the meeting of the national executive committee of the legion to consider legislation for the veteran, was instructed by telegraph last night to work for the four-option bill recommended to congress by the national legislative committee. Readjustment in pay amounting to $50 a month was urged as the measure most desired by the individual posts of Oregon, with loan for home purposes second. Vocational training at government expense and land-settlement provisions ran a poor third and fourth.

Reports were read from all sections of the state on this question and executive committeemen reported in person from numerous counties. The action was based on the majority opinions.

Sixty-day preferential rights to veterans on Oregon & California railroad land grants were reported by investigators to be of little real value to ex-service men, particularly as a very small portion of the land thrown open to settlers is considered of potential farm value.

Friday and Saturday, July 30 and 31, were the dates selected for the next state convention of the American Legion, to be held in Astoria. Two days of business sessions will be followed by an entertainment of all delegates at Seaside on Sunday, August 1. Clatsop post of Astoria promises a rousing reception, reported State Adjutant E. J. Eivers, who had just returned from a meeting of the executive committee of that post in Astoria.

Original plans were to hold the convention in May, but it was postponed at the earnest request of the Astoria legionnaires, who held that the weather was too uncertain in that month to permit of the proper entertainment of delegates. Three conventions are to be held in Astoria in June, and July was picked as the better time.

Jesse R. Hinman of Clatsop post was chosen chairman of the convention committee by Commander Follett. Hereafter the state executive committee will meet at weekly luncheons held Saturday noons at the University club. A regular business meeting of the executive committee to which out-of-town members have been particularly invited will be held on the third Saturday night of every month.

That every man who served honorably in the world war should be entitled to enjoy the privileges of citizenship was the sentiment expressed by the state executive committee last night in a resolution pledging support to national legislation intended to extend that privilege to orientals and others who would otherwise be barred who shouldered the duties of citizens in time of war and waived exemption claims to which they were entitled by law.

Strong opposition was declared to the proposal of national executive committee to reorganize the women's auxiliaries. Until the auxiliaries of Oregon have a state organization, the department executive committee will handle all state matters, but will require 25 cents a year (Concluded on Page 6, Column 3.)

DAIRYMEN AIM AT FAIR MILK PRICE

State Association Put on Co-operative Basis.

CHANGE OUTLINED AT DINNER

Operation of By-Products Factories Proposed.

NORMAL PROFIT SOUGHT

Aaron Sapiro, Attorney for California Organizations, Tells of Progress Made There.

WHAT PROPOSED REORGANIZATION OF MILK INDUSTRY MEANS.

Oregon's milk industry to be put on purely co-operative basis and to be handled by Oregon Co-operative Dairymen's league.

No milk to be handled except that of its members and no stock to be issued in this organization.

Organization of a by-products corporation, upon which stock will be issued and sold to the public, funds to be used in building new factories where needed, taking over those where agreed upon, thus protecting the interests of members.

Marketing of milk and its by-products with the object in view of providing fair returns to the producers and an equitable rate to the consumers.

Producers will sign contracts with the organization to handle their milk for a period of 5 1/2 years.

Reorganization of the milk producers of the state, now members of the Oregon Dairymen's league, with Alma D. Katz as president, into an amalgamated association under a purely co-operative basis, with the object in view of stabilizing the great industry, insuring fair returns to the owners of herds, a proper price to the ultimate consumer and the owning and operating of condenseries, butter plants and other by-products factories where needed, is all, but completed.

Announcement to this effect was made last night at a dinner at the Hotel Portland.

The dinner was given under the auspices of the Oregon Dairymen's league and was presided over by Mr. Katz. He announced that a series of meetings had been held throughout some of the principal dairying counties of the state, with large attendance of milk producers in every instance, with the result that at each of these sessions from 60 to 80 per cent of the owners of herds have signed contracts running for 5 1/2 years of delivering their milk to the co-operative association exclusively.

COURT FREES SISTERS ILLEGALLY IN ASYLUM

HEIRESS IMPRISONED TEN YEARS ON TEN-DAY PAPERS.

Fortune of Million Dwindles to $30,000 While Two Are Held in New York Hospital.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 18.—Miss Phoebe Brush, 68, and her sister Ada, 56, once heiresses to property valued at $1,000,000 and who have spent the last 10 years in the state hospital for the insane at Central Islip, when they should have remained there only 10 days, were set free today by Supreme Court Justice Tomkins.

He ruled that the two women were sent to the asylum illegally in June, 1910, as the original papers were faulty, calling for temporary commitment, and since then no further action had been taken to make the commitment final and binding.

The Misses Brush are reputed to be descendants of an old colonial family which settled in Long Island more than a century ago. Their wealth, it is said, has dwindled to about $30,000. The strange case was brought to court through the interest taken by Mrs. Florence Ferguson, once a nurse at the hospital, in whose care Justice Tomkins today entrusted them.

The sisters said today that they were kidnapped and taken to the asylum. Once they escaped, but were returned to the hospital.

At the time of the commitment it was reported they had been sent to the asylum after Ada had announced she was to wed a clergyman, declaring he had "made eyes" at her during the sermon. The church was guarded when the clergyman later married another woman, "for fear the sisters would appear and create a disturbance."

ONTARIO "ANGEL" SETS TOWN AGOG

Heyman, Caught in East, Has Golden Trail.

GIFTS MANY AND PRINCELY

Banks Put Off Guard by Tale of Great Wealth.

CIVIC RISE IS RAPID

Promotions From Clerk Accomplished With Disarming Ease. Social Expenditures Lavish.

ONTARIO, Or., March 18.—(Special.)—Lester I. Heyman, alias Lester I. Hirsch, alias L. Harris, formerly of St. Louis, now under arrest at Niagara Falls, N. Y., charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, created a furor in Ontario during the past three months through his prodigal generosity to the city and commercial club, the Oregon club and several citizens.

Heyman was arrested Sunday at Niagara Falls, N. Y., as he stepped off a train. He has waived extradition and will be brought back to Ontario within a week. He is accused of having obtained several thousand dollars from the First National bank of Ontario on the alleged representation that L. P. Goerling of Wausau, Wis., was indebted to him in a large amount. It is further alleged that he made a false statement to the bank about his assets of $142,000 and with no liabilities. It is asserted that at the time his liabilities were large and his assets small.

"Angel" Is Big Role.

White here he played the role of angel for stag parties at the Oregon club, made an outright gift of $1000 to the commercial club, an offer of a $4500 combination chemical fire truck to the city, providing the common council added sufficient equipment to give the city a first-class fire department; he offered the commercial club an outright gift of $1000 for the improvement of a city park, providing the club would secure the ground, and a committee was busily engaged in an attempt to make good when the crash came two weeks ago.

Since then the city has been agog talking almost nothing about Heyman and his escapades. All these Carnegie-like gifts caused the staid citizens to gasp, yet he gave so many evidences of wealth, spoke so glibly of rich relatives in St. Louis, declared he was a graduate of Washington university, wore a big W. on his sweater, said he was an attorney and formerly general counsel for "The Fur Trade," and entertained so elaborately that he established the ground for his final transactions.

Civic Rise Rapid.

During the last month he was elected a director of the commercial club and was elected for that organization, the actual election of officers having been postponed because of his temporary absence from the city. Some two months ago he organized the people in the neighborhood, where he had erected a apartment house, and started another for his business associate, and purchased a third, on a paving campaign.

To assure its acceptance and to obviate an issue of city bonds, he offered to take up the city's warrants of pay for the paving of the street intersections. Under this agreement signatures to the paving petition were readily secured.

Start Made as Clerk.

Hirsch, or Heyman, did not hurry his transactions here. He was hired on the streets of Portland by a local merchant to clerk in his dry-goods department. Under this agreement most signatures to the paving petition were readily secured.

He left the city in April and returned a few days later accompanied by his wife, who was announced, he married at Poncha, Idaho. Her maiden name, it has been announced, was Miss Ernestine Hibrod of Wausau, Wis. When Ontario women in sufficient numbers failed to call upon them and take them up socially, he set the town tongues wagging with a big party, for which he hired a hall, and gave of new machinery being added. Agencies were established and lines added. He apparently made good in his effort.

Big Checks Come Regularly. During this time, too, he regularly received sums of $500 or more monthly; said they were his share of the profits of his law firm in Chicago and St. Louis, or again he would represent them as his allowance from his father's estate. His larger operations began in October, when he started drawing drafts on one P. J. Gherling of Wausau, Wis., for various amounts up to $5000 or more. These were paid at first, for he returned checks to Gherling to meet these drafts, and these transactions served to throw the local bankers off their guard and (Concluded on Page 3, Column 4.)

PERHAPS THE BIG MYSTERY COULD BE SOLVED THIS WAY.
