

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

City Editor: Main 7070, A 6025
Sunday Editor: Main 7070, A 6025
Advertising Department: Main 7070, A 6025
Superintendent of Bldg.: Main 7070, A 6025

AMUSEMENTS.
ORPHEUM (Broadway at Taylor-Yau-deville. This afternoon and tonight.)

THIEF STAMPS.
WAR SAVING STAMPS
Business Office, Oregonian.

PORTLAND EXHIBIT ASSURED.—Port-land will send a fine exhibit to Seat-tle, to be shown at the international mining convention to be held there April 7 to 10. This was collected fol-lowing address on the subject by G. A. Collins, chairman of the com-mittee on arrangements, at the com-merce forum of the Chamber of Com-merce yesterday. The advantages of the meeting were emphasized and the city was asked to aid in making con-vention a success. President Van Duser of the Chamber of Commerce will appoint a committee to arrange for the Portland exhibit. H. M. Parke, director of the Oregon state bureau of mines and geology, is deeply in-terested in the convention. Portland is in line for next year's meeting.

JAP DRUNK, NOT ATTACKED.—When Motorcycle Patrolman Schad answered an east side call late Sunday and found L. Akiyama, a Japanese, lying on a railroad track his face covered with blood and apparently in an un-conscious condition, he telephoned for an ambulance and had the Jap sent to the emergency hospital. Before he arrived there, the Jap recovered his senses and started to fight with the men who discovered he was drunk and had fallen and hurt himself while intox-icated. Judge Rossman yesterday gave him a suspended sentence of 10 days for disturbing the peace. The Jap's friends had paid the ambulance com-pany $10 for hauling the patient to the police station.

PORTLAND GIRLS TAKE HONORS.—Ac-cording to word received here yester-day from Mills college, Oakland, the only woman's college west of Chi-cago, former graduates of the Lin-coln high school of Portland are ob-taining high honors in scholarship, as well as participating prominently in school activities at Mills college. The list of Portland girls now attending the college include Judith Lippitt, Dorothy Metachan, Ruth Ferguson, Margaret Foster, Virginia Chamberlain, Stewart, Louise Smith, Mary Gill, Stella Riggs, Jane Sellar, Katherine Sellar and Miriam Shemanski.

BANK OPENS OFFICES.—Pending com-pletion of its new quarters in the Gordon building at Fourth and Stark streets, the People's bank has opened temporary offices on the corner of Third and Stark streets. President E. T. Cruwell stated yesterday that the bank hopes to open by April 5. The People's bank is capitalized at $100,000 with $10,000 surplus and is owned and directed by Oregon men. The officers are: E. T. Gruwell, president; Clifford F. Reid, president of the Northwestern Trust company, vice-president and Hugh C. Gruwell, cashier.

POLICE FOR LIGHT SAVING.—Members of the police force are among the strong supporters of the proposed ordinance to inaugurate daylight saving in Portland next month. A petition to the council to pass such an ordinance was being freely signed at police headquarters yesterday. Chief West and Sergeant Ervin are among the offi-cers signing the petition. It also con-tains the names of many police ser-gents and patrolmen.

OLD THIRD TO HAVE ORGANIZATION.—To preserve the bonds of comrade-ship acquired through their mutual service, the members of the old 3d Oregon infantry, known during the war as the 16th infantry, will meet at the armory on the evening of March 25, at which time a permanent or-ganization will be effected. Temporary officers selected to handle the meet-ing pointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws. The meeting will be followed by entertainment and refreshments.

DRIVER ACCUSED OF THEFT.—Loren L. Kingsland, a driver for the United States laundry, was arrested yester-day by Police Inspectors LaSalle and Schupltis on a warrant signed by Frank Couch of the laundry company, which charges the driver with larceny by embezzlement of company funds. The amount is said to be in the neighborhood of $2000. Kingsland is said to have admitted the taking of the money.

TWO HELD ON TRAFFIC CHARGES.—George Pembroke, a pipe fitter, was arrested early yesterday while in-toxicated and was released on $250 bonds pending a hearing in police court to-day. V. J. Carlson, a contractor, was arrested on a charge of reckless driv-ing and is held under $250 bail pend-ing a hearing before Municipal Judge Rossman.

REED TO HEAR EDUCATOR.—William Allan Neilson, president of Smith col-lege, Northampton, Mass., the largest woman's college in this country, will speak at Reed college this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting is open to the public. Mr. Neilson was formerly professor of English at Harvard and is the author of numerous inter-pretative books on literature.

RESTAURANT OWNER FINED.—John Candlish, restaurant owner, 30 North Third street, was fined $25 in police court yesterday after pleading guilty to operating an unsanitary restaurant. He is expected to be in the health bureau told Judge Rossman the place was filthy and that tainted food was being sold.

GRABER ESTATE $7,000.—An estate valued at $7,000 was left by the late Joseph F. Graber, who died Janu-ary 25, according to the petition for letters of administration filed in the circuit court by his widow, Mrs. Emma J. Graber, yesterday. She is the sole heir.

LENNER DANCE TOMORROW.—The Jeffer-son alumni of Oregon Agricultural col-lege are to give a matinee dance in the Jefferson high school gymna-sium tomorrow. The college students in town are urged to be present.

LIVE WIRES TO MEET.—The Oregon City live wires will hold forth in a meeting at the Portland Ad Club's regular luncheon at the Benson hotel tomorrow noon. Ralph L. Shepherd is chairman of the delegation and E. E. Brodie will introduce the speakers. Snappy ten-minute talks will be de-livered by O. D. Eby, A. A. Price and Grant B. Dimick. A delegation of 50 live wires will come from Oregon City and will be met by a special com-mittee from the Ad club and escorted to the Benson hotel via automobiles. This is the second get-together meet-ing staged by the Portland Ad club to enable local business men to familiarize themselves with problems of other sections, the first meeting being with Astoria.

BEND TO GET QUOTA.—Bend is on the bandwagon and in three or four months expects to have its quota of $1000 in the Baptist and "new world" movement raised and then will raise probably $10,000 or $15,000 to build a new church edifice, the old one having been destroyed several months ago. This word was brought back to Port-land yesterday by Dr. O. C. Wright, site promotion director for the move-

PORTLAND GIRLS DIES WHILE ATTENDING SCHOOL IN EAST.

Miss Helen Noble. Funeral services were held in New York last week for Miss Helen Noble, daughter of the late J. C. Noble of Portland, who died after an operation on March 15. The young woman, who was 19 years of age, had been attending Miss Finch's school. She was a former student of Miss Catlin's school in Portland and St. Helen's Hall.

FOUR SENT TO GRAND JURY.—Four second-hand dealers, who were ar-ested last week on charges of receiv-ing stolen property, were bound over to the state grand jury yesterday after a preliminary hearing before Municipal Judge Rossman. The men held to the grand jury and the bail demanded of each follows: Felix Goldstein, $1000; Nathan Carl, $1000; Harry Goldstein, $1000; M. Jacobson, $500.

FILLING STATION PLAN OPPOSED.—The Couch Parent-Teacher associa-tion has called a meeting for 8 o'clock tonight at the school to protest against the proposal to place a Stan-dard Oil filling station at Twenty-first and Hoyt streets. The location is held to be dangerous to the chil-dren, as it is less than 200 feet from the Couch school.

LIBERTY LEZARD RECEIVED.—J. C. Stubbs of Prairie City, Or., recently mailed to The Oregonian a live "Liberty Lezard" which he said he had found near the banks of the John Day river. The specimen is about two inches long, its body striped black and white, its head of a reddish cast and its tail a bright blue.

ROGER SINNOTT REMEMBERED.—A trib-ute to the memory of Roger B. Sin-nott was paid by the members of the Portland Chamber of Commerce at its weekly meeting yesterday. J. E. Bronaugh read a testimonial to Mr. Sinnott's sterling character and those present arose in token of their esteem. Mr. Sinnott died suddenly last week.

EXPLANATION OF JEWELRY WANTED.—H. R. Wilson and Thomas Roberts were arrested yesterday at Third and Burnside streets by Police Inspectors Coleman and Collins and are being held for investigation. A quantity of jewelry was found in a suitcase in a room occupied by the two men. The police believe it to be stolen property.

PAY OFF YOUR MORTGAGE. In monthly installments and really own your home. See us about your renewal. Special proposition. Port-land Trust Co., Sixth and Morrison.—Adv.

EXTRACTING TEETH painlessly under nerve blocking permits us to leave the mouth in such condition as to make it possible for one to have permanent bridge fitted very soon after teeth are removed. Let us explain. Drs. Hartley, Kelsendahl & Marshall. 307 Journal bldg.—Adv.

CONSOLIDATION WILL BE TOPIC.—A. L. Barbur will speak on the plans for consolidation of city and county gov-ernment at 2:30 P. M. today, in the assembly room of the Hotel Port-land, at the regular meeting of the Progressive Women's league.

MANY MONTHS are ruined by wearing ill-fitting plates. Consult the spe-cialist, Dr. E. C. Rossman and see if it is still possible to get satisfactory teeth. 307 Journal bldg.—Adv.

CENTRALIA, Wash., March 22.—(Special)—J. L. Sloane has tendered his resignation to the school board as principal of the Washington school. He will be succeeded by Miss Edith

See our windows. WHAT WILL BE YOUR Spring Low Shoe Selection? Ribbon Ties, Strap Pumps, Colonial Pumps, Opera Pumps, Louis Heel Oxfords, Military Heel Oxfords, Cuban Heel Oxfords or Wing Tip "Brogans"?

It doesn't matter what your choice may be, the demand is most satisfactorily met here. Everything new is here—and in a price to fit each purse— $10.00, $12.00, $15.00 and $18.50

Most complete assortment of Buckles and Hosiery. Business hours, 9 to 6, including Saturday.

Knights Shoe Co. Morrison, Near Broadway

The Last Symphony Concert of the Series 1919-1920 Request Program Popular Prices

Have you attended a Symphony Concert this season? If not, here is your chance to spend a most delightful evening, and at the same time show your appreciation of a home organization that is doing magnificent work.

Closing Concert March 24th, Heilig Theater Carl Denton, Conductor REQUEST PROGRAM

Symphony No. 6 in B minor (Pathétique).....Tchaikowsky Adagio; Allegro; Andante; Allegro vivace

INTERMISSION Prelude to "Parsifal".....Wagner Dance of the Whistle-Pipers from "Nutcracker Suite".....Tchaikowsky

Suite "Sigurd Jorsalfar".....Greig Prelude Intermezzo Triumphant March

COLEMAN, principal of the Lincoln school. The latter in turn will be succeeded by Miss Irene Schacht as principal and Miss Estelle Burnside of Bellingham as teacher.

Supreme Court Recess Announced. WASHINGTON, March 22.—The su-preme court announced today that at the conclusion of the arguments in the New Jersey and Wisconsin pro-hibition cases next Monday it would recess until April 12.

Centralia Principal Resigns. CENTRALIA, Wash., March 22.—(Special)—J. L. Sloane has tendered his resignation to the school board as principal of the Washington school. He will be succeeded by Miss Edith Advertisement for Knight Shoe Co. featuring 'Spring Low Shoe Selection' and listing various shoe styles like Ribbon Ties, Strap Pumps, etc. Includes contact information for Morrison, Near Broadway.

Advertisement for 'The Last Symphony Concert' featuring Carl Denton as conductor. Lists the program including Tchaikowsky's Symphony No. 6 and other pieces.

Advertisement for 'Nature's Warning Signals' featuring Dandruff Itching Scalp Bald Spots and Falling Hair Oily Hair Dry, Brittle Hair. Includes a small illustration of a person's head.

Advertisement for 'COAST CLOCK CO.' offering to 'Repair Your Clock and Do It Right' at Marshall 4364, 214 Gerlinger Bldg.

Advertisement for 'Brownsville Woolen Mill Store' featuring 'Spring Suits Tailored-to-Order' and 'Special Prices $45 to $75'. Includes an illustration of a man in a suit.

Advertisement for 'The Wiley B. Allen Co.' featuring pianos and records. Promotes 'The Circle Flight' and lists prices for various models.

Advertisement for 'The Circle Flight' featuring 'Flying Today' and 'Travel the High Road'. Promotes scenic flights to Oregon, Washington & Idaho.

Advertisement for 'HOTEL SEWARD' located at 2000 Broadway. Describes it as a modern and elegantly appointed hotel.

Advertisement for 'HOTEL CLIFFORD' located at East Morrison St. and East Sixth. Describes it as a moderately priced hotel.

Advertisement for 'C. Gee Wo' featuring 'Metal Tanks?' and 'Automatic Manufacturing Co.' products. Includes contact information for 440 Hancock St.