SHANNON SHOWS HE FAVORS HARD FIGHT

Bronson and Southern Boy Mix in Workout.

PRACTICE BOUT HARD MILL

BY RICHARD R. SHARP. Eddle Shannon of San Francisco and Muff Bronson, Portland lightweight battler, put up one of the hardest fought workouts that the local fans have ever had the pleasure to witness at the London club yesterday afternoon. They just went two rounds but that was enough, and it is doubtful if either boy could have continued more than one or two more cantos at the pace they set.

the pace they set. When Shannon arrived here Monday his trainer, Joe Hennessey, looked up Bronson and asked Muff if he would work with Shannon for the latter's 10-round fight against Freddie Anderson at the Armory tomorrow night. As Bronson had nothing on, he agreed to step with Eddie and showed up at 2 o'clock for the workout.

Fireworks Start in Practice.

Afer a few rounds of rope skipping and bag punching before a crowd o the gloves and began to spar. They had traveled about 10 seconds When everyone in the gymnasium saw that there was going to be some fire-works. Both men led suddenly and one of them was on the receiving end of a stinging punch. They started it. Shannon tore into Bronson and Muff tore into Eddie. The next thing that the audience knew Bronson was on knees. Yesterday they donned the gloves again. The first round was just a nice give and take affair, neither box-er trying to hurt the other. But the second was different. At the tap of the gong they both started the mixing and it was one grand glorious three-minute session for those who were lucky enough to be on hand to watch the proceedings.

There was more actual fighting packed into that one round than in some of the whole cards staged in this neek of the woods. The second round ended the workout and both boys were glad of the halt.

Shannon Pleases Experts.

Shannon is the best looking light weight in the gymnasium that has appeared here in years. Such well known members of the fistle fra-ternity as "Denver" Ed Martin and others said after Shannon's short exhibition yesterday that he has every qualification of a coming champion. Freddie Anderson, the young Vancouver mauler who will meet Shannor tomorrow night, worked out about a half an hour ahead of Eddie. Ander-son is in great condition and going at a fast clip. He has been indulging in plenty of road work and will be in shape to go the ten hardest rounds of his career, if necessary. Freddie i should prove a nard man for any boxer stow away. The semi-windup of 10 rounds be tween Allie Nack of New York and "Puggy" Morton of Los Angeles is attracting as much interest as the main event. Nack and Morton will Nack is one of the topnetchers of the country and among the eastern boys he has fought are Willie Jack-son, Johnny Dundee, Patsy Cline, Leo Johnson, Pete Hartley, Pal Moore, Billy Whalen and Tommy Toughey. He holds decisions over nearly all of these boys. Since arriving in San Francisco from New York several months ago Nack has fought Frankie Burns, Jimmy Duffy, Frankle Malone Uddle Shannon, Joe Bartakle Malone Burns, Jimmy Duffy, Frankle Malone, Eddie Shannon, Joe Benjamin, Frankle Farren, Johnny Schauer, Billy Nelson, Harry Riedy, Young France and Leo Patterson.

Morton is a coast boy, who went east and polished off some of the best men in the business. He fought Charley White, Clonie Tait, Johnny Schauer, Harvey Thorpe and others, putting up good scraps.

Morton gave Shannon a hard battle in Vancouver, B. C., last week and has held his own with Harry Schuman on two occasions. He beat Frankie Farren here and should have had the decision over Frankle Rogers at the last card. Stanley Willis, the clever Philadel-

WHERE ROMANCE AND ADVENTURE FLOURISH STILL

Travel by Land and Sea to the Picturesque Places of the World—Afforded by the United States Marine Corps.

"Sailing Orders"

If you're weary of the office And your step has lost its snap.

If you're looking for a life that ats
A big two-fisted chap—

If you want to go a-roving
All this jolly old world round,
Come a-runnin', runnin', buddy,
When the bugle starts to sound.

For we've got our sailing orders,
And there's joy in all our hearts—
O, we're dropping down the river,
And it's hey for foreign parts!
It's hey for Guam'and Haiti
And the beach at Wakaiki!

The Marines have got their orders, And they're putting out to sea-If you're tired of the factory Or you're weary of the plow.

And you don't find any romance
In the job you're doing now.

Here's a chance to go a-roving
To the place Adventure's found.

So come a-runnin', buddy, When you hear the bugles sound.

They're cheering from the ferries.

And they're waving from the shore; The dull old life's behind us And the new life lies before. We're off to make talk "howdy" With the Moro and Chinee.

The Marines have got their orders, And they're putting out to sea. The young man who has not felt the call of the sea, who has never known the "wanderlust"—that restless hunger for the sight of strange foreign lands and stranger people—he does not exist. But how many men neglect their op-portunities and grow old without ever having wandered very far from their own home towns. What have such men gotten out

What have such men gotten out of life? What have they to look back on but a monotonous round of uninteresting toil? How they must envy their more fortunate-or perhaps more daring fellows, who have traveled and seen and done—who have lived life to the full!

How the "stay-at-home" must regret his lack of enterorise, as he regret his lack of enterprise, as he sits, one of an interested group, while some ex-Marine spins yarn after yarn (and true yarns they are, too) of his adventures on toss-ing seas and under tropic skies. The Marine and the Wide World At the moment you are reading this there is hardly a country on earth where there are not United States Marines, doing men's work —yes, and playing, too, as real men play—storing up health and memories that will last them to the end of the chapter. There are Marines down in Cuba.

There are Marines down in Cuba, picturesque old Cuba, almost as Spanish today as when the red and yellow flag of Spain floated over Morro Castle. In Haiti—the queer little republic, where the colored folks speak French, Marines are helping to slap bad little bandlts on the wrist when they misbehave. That's life—life with just enough danger, in it to make it worth the living.

There are Marines walking the

It worth the living.

There are Marines walking the streets of London and Pares. They are hearing real ukeleles on a real beach at Wakaiki. They are in the Philippines and "somewhere east of Suez." where Mr. Kipling tells us "there ain't no ten commandments and a man can raise a thirst." Maybe it isn't as bad as that, but the Orient is mighty interesting.
