

NO QUARTER TO BE SHOWN TO REBELS

Chancellor Says Reactionaries to Get Out of Army.

WORKMEN ASK TROOPS

Delegation Goes to Allies to Get Help in Ruhr District Because Leaders Fear Death.

BERLIN, March 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—Chancellor Mueller, in a speech outlining his programme, told the national assembly today that the reactionary elements in the army will be swept away with an iron broom.

No quarter will be shown military leaders who violated their oath in the recent revolution, said the chancellor. Peace treaty terms were responsible for the reactionary sentiment still prevailing in many quarters, he added, and asserted the government would oppose the French demand for allied occupation of Frankfurt, Darmstadt and other cities in return of the privilege of sending German troops into the neutral zone. The government, he continued, does not propose to subject these peaceful communities to the terrors of occupation.

ESSEN, March 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—Three workmen's delegates left Essen today to urge the allied representatives to send troops into the Ruhr district. There was some perplexity at a secret meeting of the workmen today over the course to be pursued. After a debate the plan of sending delegates to Münster to negotiate was voted down. A military representative then told the meeting that the allies had offered to mediate.

CONDITIONS ARE LAID DOWN

Unconditional Recognition of Authorities Is Demanded.

BERLIN, March 29.—Energetic measures to restore order and to protect the German people from "illegal acts" will be taken by the government against communist forces operating in the Ruhr region, said a manifesto issued by the government today.

The following conditions are laid down as conditions upon which the government will refrain from taking drastic steps to restore order and to protect its authority: Unconditional recognition of constitutional state authorities; Restoration of official civilian and police services, providing they have not been implicated in the movement supporting the reactionary regime set up by Dr. Winterhagen; Immediate release of prisoners. If these conditions are accepted the government will not intervene, but if they are not, the government, commanding government troops in the Ruhr district, will receive full powers to proceed.

PRUSSIAN MINISTRY NAMED

Braun Is Chosen Premier and in Charge of Agriculture.

BERLIN, March 29.—The newly organized ministry for Prussia, it was announced today, is composed as follows:

Premier and minister of agriculture, Herr Braun; minister of the interior, Herr Steyerwald; minister of education, Herr Haensch; minister of finance, Herr Ludeman; minister of public works, Herr Oeser; minister of trade, Herr Fischbeck; minister of people's welfare, Herr Steyerwald; minister of justice, Herr Zehnhoff. Four of the ministers are social democrats, two are democrats and two are members of the center party. Premier Braun was minister of agriculture in the last cabinet, and Herr Haensch, Herr Oeser, Herr Fischbeck, Herr Steyerwald and Herr Zehnhoff also were members of that ministry.

FOREMAN ADAMS TELLS OF TROUBLE

Was Rundown for Two Years. In Fine Shape Since Taking Tanlac.

George Adams, 326 Maple avenue, Los Angeles, Cal. offers a testimonial of the Los Angeles Paper Box Factory, is still another who has cause to be glad he was induced to take Tanlac. "Since Tanlac has fixed me up in such good shape," said Mr. Adams, "I keep a bottle in my house all the time, and never expect to be without it. For over two years I was in a badly run-down, weakened condition. My kidneys were very weak and bothered me a great deal. I got up every morning with a severe pain in my back and so stiff I could hardly straighten up. I had a poor appetite and felt as if my right arm and the time I did not feel like doing a single thing. Well, while up in Seattle, Wash., about a year ago I heard so many people talking about what a grand medicine Tanlac was I decided to try it. I am certainly glad I did, for it began to help me right away, and in a short while I was enjoying the best of health and have been in good health ever since. When I get up in the mornings now I feel strong and ready for work. No more pains in my back or stiffness and that tired, worn-out feeling is all gone. I have a splendid appetite and never have a sign of kidney weakness at all. I do not hesitate to recommend Tanlac, for I know from my own experience that it will do the work." Tanlac is sold in Portland by the Owl Drug Co.—Adv.

AIR MAIL PLAN FAVORED

SENATE IS FOR NEW YORK-SAN FRANCISCO SERVICE.

Appropriation of $1,415,000 Written Into Annual Postoffice Bill and Sent to Conference.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—An appropriation of $1,415,000 for aerial mail service from New York to San Francisco was written into the annual postoffice appropriation bill today just before it passed the senate and was sent to conference. The house rejected a similar proposal, but senate leaders were hopeful. The route planned is by way of Chicago and Omaha. Various proposals for southern routing were thrown out on points of order. The bill carries $462,000,000 for expenses of the postal service during the next fiscal year, an increase of about $1,500,000 over the figures for 1919. The senate also inserted provisions for retention of the abandoned mail tubes in various large cities and for appointment of a congressional committee to investigate mail transportation in congested centers.

An amendment to permit leasing of the tubes to be used by the government in road building was adopted. The senate rejected a proposition by Senator Meyer, Democrat, Montana, to prohibit postal employees from holding membership in any union affiliated with any other union outside the postal service.

HONEST GOODS URGED

CONSUMERS' LEAGUE SECRETARY SPEAKS AT LUNCH.

Mrs. Florence Kelley Favors Flexible Minimum Wage to Provide "Frugal Comfort."

Mrs. Florence Kelley, general secretary of the National Consumers' League, yesterday at a luncheon at the Benson, under the auspices of the Civic League, chose as her topic "Wages and Our National Morality," and delved deeply in matters of minimum wages, food control and honest fabrics. The organization which she represents, the speaker said, believes minimum wages should be flexible and that the worker is entitled to enough money to provide plenty of food and living conditions of "frugal comfort."

RIDDLE ASKS INJUNCTION

City Objects to Being Left to One Side by New Route.

ROSEBURG, Or., March 29.—(Special.)—The circuit court today, Judge G. F. Skipworth of Eugene presiding, began hearing the application of the city of Riddle to prevent the Pacific highway commission from improving the cut-off road surveyed from Myrtle creek to Canyonville. The proposed new route would eliminate 2.7 miles of road, but would leave Riddle off the highway. It is the contention of the plaintiffs that the commission has no authority to establish a new road, and a permanent injunction is asked.

MULLINX ALIBI DOUBTED

Witnesses Contradict Story Told by Accused.

PRISONER UNABLE TO FURNISH BAIL

And Will Remain in Jail Until Grand Jury Acts.

SALEM, Or., March 29.—(Special.)—Jess Mullinx, who is charged with shooting T. M. Steiger, a prominent rancher residing about two miles north of Salem, who the latter was milking a cow in his barn last Thursday night, appeared before Judge Unruh here today, waived preliminary examination and was bound over to the grand jury. Bail was fixed in the amount of $10,000. Mullinx announced in court that he would be unable to furnish the bond and will remain in jail pending action by the grand jury. The sheriff and his deputies yesterday found a piece of cloth near the scene of the shooting, which upon being compared with clothing worn by Mullinx was declared to be identical. The officers also found several empty shells near the Steiger barn, together with a number of unfired bullets, on the bank of a stream between Salem and the scene of the shooting. Search of a stream north of Salem is being made now by the officers, in hope of finding the revolver used by the assassin.

Sheriff Needham said today that the story told by Mullinx that he was playing pool in a local cigar store at the hour of the shooting was untrue. The witness was asked, according to the sheriff, who will testify that Mullinx left the cigar store shortly after 7 o'clock Thursday night and returned nearly two hours later.

TWO-MILE LEVY INDORSED

TEACHERS AND PRINCIPALS MEET SIMULTANEOUSLY.

Recommendations of Council for Support of Levy Increase Is Unanimously Approved.

High school and grade teachers of the Portland schools, meeting simultaneously in two halls at the Central library, yesterday, unanimously endorsed the recommendation of the representative council, providing support for the proposed 2-mill tax levy. This included a clause authorizing a levy of 3 per cent of one month's salary of each teacher to furnish funds for the campaign. Eugene Brookings was retained as campaign manager. The wage increase under today's agreement amounts to approximately 37 per cent, including the 14 per cent advance granted by Fuel Administrator Garfield. As the miners are now receiving the 14 per cent, the net increase will be 13 per cent.

POINDEXTER ABSENT, HOME STATE FORGETS

WOOD IS SECOND CHOICE

Uncertainty of Status and Homecoming of Candidate Hurts Feelings of Supporters.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 29.—(Special.)—If United States Senator Poindexter's friends do not draw his attention to the state of Washington pretty soon he is likely to find a pretty fight on his hands when he comes out there next month to thank the republican state convention for endorsing him as a presidential candidate.

Seemingly, the Poindexter leaders hereabouts have been wavering frantically for several months to attract Poindexter's attention, but he won't look in this direction. And right now, as republican politicians see it, there is danger that the degree of intense, unquestioning loyalty that the junior senator expects from his home state may not be shown by the delegation selected at the Bellingham convention next month to represent this state in the republican national convention.

WOOD SECOND CHOICE

There is an active campaign being made, under cover of a pro-Poindexter movement, in favor of a delegation that would have General Leonard Wood as its second choice for president. And in the background there is a feeling that Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, might be the man that this state would have to support.

The Wood boomers are especially active in King county. Lee Johnston is regarded as the principal organizer for the Wood forces, but he has associated with him many of the leaders in the King County Young Men's Republican club and a part of the republican state committee, though very few of the committee have broken away from the Poindexter programme.

The making of their fight the Wood supporters, as well as those who want Lowden or some other presidential candidate, are arguing that as a matter of course the state should give Poindexter its first choice, but that the delegation should be carefully picked so as to avoid mistakes on second or third or other choices. Moreover, it is argued that the delegation should not be tied up to Poindexter for more than a talking tour.

SENATOR'S STATUS UNCERTAIN

So far as the great mass of republican workers are concerned they do not know whether Poindexter has fallen by the wayside or is up and running with the field. If his confidential friends in this state have been advised as to what is expected they will have received the information as a family secret, and this hurts the feelings of the crowd which must get out and carry the primaries and conventions.

It has been stated from time to time that Poindexter was about to visit his home in the woods or to be started, if party leaders are to be believed. Now it is said he will be along this way about the time the republican state convention meets in Bellingham. However, even this announcement is not official. In the meantime, the Wood boomers and the Lowden supporters, together with the followers of other presidential candidates, are making capital out of the Poindexter uncertainty.

The move to make Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell temporary chairman of the republican county convention was an effort to head off any move to turn the convention over to any presidential candidate. On the theory that a temporary chairman would be chosen who might talk too much about some body else, Poindexter supporters suggested Caldwell, on the theory
