

OREGON DEMOCRATS
BAFFLED BUT BUSY

Hoover and McAdoo Orders
Somewhat Disconcerting.

McCoy IS PLUGGING AWAY

Uninstructed Delegation to San Francisco Convention, in Spite of All, Held Improbable.

Oregon is not likely to send an uninstructed delegation to the democratic convention at San Francisco, notwithstanding Oswald West has decided not to present his petition placing Herbert Hoover's name on the presidential primary ballot and George Lovejoy intends not to file his petition for William G. McAdoo. Some of the candidates for delegate to the democratic convention would like to be footloose and in a position to make any combinations they deem advantageous, but if they are pledged to support a certain aspirant they are practically tied down.

Without fuss Newton McCoy is plugging away for McAdoo petition and the message sent by Mr. McAdoo to Mr. Lovejoy asking that the latter file no petition does not disturb Mr. McCoy in the least. If Mr. McCoy accumulates the needed 1000 signatures he can be depended on to file them with the secretary of state, regardless of the wishes of Mr. McAdoo. However, Mr. Lovejoy has not destroyed his McAdoo petition, not as you would notice it, and he is holding it in readiness to be used if he decides that conditions warrant it. Mr. Lovejoy's petition is ready to slap on the ballot on a few hours' notice, but it may be permitted to gather dust, providing Mr. McCoy does not steal a march and file a McAdoo petition.

Anyway, the "flying squirrel" name is not on the ballot, there is strong probability that some democratic name or names will be. The democratic party is not plunging into primary contests like the republican aspirants because of the attitude of Mr. Wilson, but there are a number who would dearly like to show up at the San Francisco convention with a string of pledged votes. It will not be surprising if Mr. Gerard's name is on the Oregon ballot or the name of Mr. Palmer or one or two others.

David M. Dunne decided yesterday to become a candidate for delegate to the republican national convention. He will seek to be a delegate from the third congressional district. Colonel Dunne is a member of the state central committee and for many years has taken an active part in the councils of the republican party in Oregon.

ROTARY CLUB NOMINATES
SEVEN TRUSTEES TO BE CHOSEN TO VOTE APRIL 13.

George A. Wilson, recently of New York, Tells of Impressions of Oregon.

Nomination of 14 candidates for the seven positions as members of the board of trustees, to be filled at the annual election to be held Tuesday evening, April 13, was the principal business in the routine of the Portland Rotary club yesterday at the noon luncheon held in the Crystal room of the Benson hotel. There will be no meeting of the club next week for the reason that the larger part of the membership will be absent from the city attending the annual conference of the 23d district, which will meet at Victoria April 5 and 6. Contestants for the places on the board, six of whom will be elected for a term of two years and one for a term of one year, placed in nomination are the following: J. W. Vogan, John H. Dendora, J. R. Ellison, R. L. Sablin, Fred L. Rasch, T. H. Williams, A. J. Hale, G. H. Herron, J. E. Joyce, S. C. Connel, O. H. Becker, C. A. DeFries, Dr. W. W. Young, G. W. Mason.

TRIBUTE PAID MR. KING

PASTOR SPEAKS OF ADMIRABLE CAREER AT FUNERAL.

Services Conducted for Late Business Man of Portland From Holman Chapel.

The funeral of the late Samuel W. King was held yesterday afternoon in the Holman chapel, Third and Salmon streets, the Rev. W. G. Elliot, Jr., pastor of the First Unitarian church, officiating. Dr. Elliot, who had known Mr. King for many years, touched upon his admirable character and esteemed personality as a teacher, church worker, a business man and a loyal and honored citizen of Portland. "Those of us who knew him as a teacher," said Dr. Elliot, "never really think of him in any other way and as pupils, gratefully remember all that he did for us."

$10,013 GIVEN Y. W. C. A.

PROGRESS REPORTED IN CAMPAIGN IN PORTLAND.

One Business Man Donates Check and Invites Second Call if Quota Is Not Obtained.

"Here's a check and if you don't get your full quota by the end of the week, come back to me for another," remarked a prominent business man yesterday when asked to contribute to the $40,000 campaign for social service work of the Y. W. C. A. This is just one of the little incidents that are checking the workers who began Monday to canvass the city to raise the fund needed for the non-supporting and emergency activities of the season during the year.

Solicitors are meeting each day for tea at the building and reporting their returns, which now amount to $10,013.55, which means that more than one-fourth of the budget has been raised during two weeks of campaigning. Several prizes have been offered solicitors getting the highest receipts. The young woman winning first place at the end of the week will receive a "Palmyre" waist, donated by the W. J. Ball company, and the highest team will get an Indian blanket, contributed by the Pendleton Woolen mills.

TOURIST SAVES GASOLINE

First Arrival at Cottage Grove Makes Trip on Bicycle.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., March 30. (Special.)—With the arrival here of Burnside Holmes on his way overland from San Francisco to Idaho, Cottage Grove's tourist season may be said to have officially opened. Mr. Holmes is using a means of locomotion which most tourists have discarded, but which he finds gives him a great deal of mileage on very little gasoline. He is making the trip by bicycle and doesn't have to be pulled out of mudholes or submit to extortion by any of the vultures which are said to await tourists in distress. He is 56 years of age and is taking the outing in the hope of benefiting his health. He was just ten days in reaching here from San Francisco, although he found the going pretty hard in many places.
