SALARY INCREASES GIVEN BY COUNTY

Board Acts on Suggestion of Department Heads.

TOTAL WILL REACH $17,000

District Attorney Being Asked for Opinion as to Legality of Commissioners' Action.

Salary increases which will total $17,000 for the present year and affecting more than 100 deputies and other county employes were voted yesterday by the county commissioners upon the recommendation of the several department heads. The increases were made effective as of March 1, and will be contained in the county warrants to be delivered today, providing the district attorney's office approves the legality of the action.

The action of the board is not in the nature of a readjustment, but for the purpose of granting higher pay to men are finding it a serious problem to live and maintain their families under existing salary scales.

Many Employes Benefited.

The list includes 37 deputy sheriffs who go up from $125 to $145 per month; 12 deputy assessors, from $125 to $145; ten deputy county clerks, from $125 to $145, and eight deputy constables who receive the same increase.

Six deputy county clerks now receiving $110, and 14 b alliffs receiving a like sum, will get $125. The bailiffs were increased at the request of Circuit Judge Morrow, who told the board he represented the other circuit judges in asking for relief for these employes.

Two janitors were increased from $100 to $110, and 17 janitors from $100 to $105. Three elevator operators will receive $105 instead of $100, and two county jail elevator operators $125 instead of $100. The assistant superintendent of the building was increased from $105 to $110, and the night watchman from $105 to $110. Two telephone operators get $100 in place of $90 a month.

W. J. Richmond, chief clerk of the district court, was the only employe receiving $150 or more to get an increase, his salary being raised from $150 to $175. The salary of his chief assistant, hitherto $125, will be $140, and three other deputies in his office were granted rises from $100 to $119.

A draughtsman in the office of Roadmaster Ratchel was increased from $135 to $150, and one clerk in the same office from $120 to $140. Two cashiers in the tax department of the sheriff's office were boosted from $135 to $150, and eight deputy county assessors from $100 to $115. Two county jail matrons were increased from $100 to $115.

Others to Be Considered.

In voting these sums, the board made it plain they were not in the nature of a systematic salary adjustment but for the purpose of taking care of an acute emergency situation which has arisen through the ever-increasing cost of living. Employes receiving higher salaries will be considered during the present month.

There is some slight question as to the legality of some of the increases because they are in excess of the limit fixed by statute, but an interpretation of this law obtained by the board yesterday made it appear as though they could be granted and unless District Attorney Evans gives a negative opinion they will go into effect at once.

CAR THEFT BUREAU OPENS

RECORD TO BE KEPT OF ALL AUTOS IN CITY.

New Police Division in Charge of Lieutenant Thacher Out to Make Record.

The new automobile theft bureau opens for business today under the leadership of Lieutenant of Police Harvey Thatcher. The members of the new division, created by a recent order of Chief of Police Jenkins, are out to make a record and they hope to celebrate the first day of the existence of the bureau by making a number of arrests.

Plans for the operation of the bureau provide for an indexed record of every automobile in the city. A similar record will be kept of cars from other cities and states which may be in the city for a short time. A check also will be made of all garages. This will also give a record of purchases of automobile accessories or automobiles which might be stolen.

The bureau will have its headquarters temporarily in room 418 of the police station. It is planned to have officers on duty at all hours.

FARMER DIES SUDDENLY

Heart Failure Induced by Running to Catch Interurban Car.

Heart failure, due to ever-exertion in running for an interurban car, resulted in the death at Gresham Monday of James H. Wilson, aged 79, pioneer farmer of Multnomah county. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Gresham Methodist Episcopal church. Burial will be in the Douglas cemetery, near Troutdale.

Mr. Wilson and his wife were on their way to the interurban train to Portland Monday, and ran for a short distance to catch the car, which was then at the station. They had reached the car and had just seated themselves, when Mr. Wilson fell over in the seat with the fatal attack. He was dead within a few minutes.

Mr. Wilson came to Oregon in 1858 and had been farming east of Gresham continuously since his arrival in this state. He is survived by his widow and four children—W. M. Wilson of Portland, Mrs. M. Clark of Portland, and Charles and Edgar Wilso nof Gresham.

A Riverview Home $3100

$1200 cash, $25 monthly, buys this well-built concrete brick bungalow of 5 rooms, on lot 50x100, at Island station on the Oregon City line. This is a very picturesque location, and if you are fond of fishing, boating, bathing, etc., you have to do is to practically just step out of your front gate and there you are. We do not believe that the bungalow alone could be duplicated today for less than $4500.
