W. M. Dickens, 17 years old, of 1711 Fifty-third avenue, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Police Officer Russell on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, the result of a fight which he is said to have had with Ernest Boechel of 118 Kilpatrick with Ernest Boechel of 118 Kilpatrick street, at the garage of the Swift plant in North Portland, where the two were employed.

Boechel is in St. Vincent's hospital suffering a possible fracture of the skull as the result of a blow on the head from an automobile crank. The boy was turned over to the county authorities owing to the fact that the alleged fight took place outside of the city. Deputy Sheriff Mollenhour said last night that Dickens admitted to him that he struck the man, but he said that he did it after Boechel had struck his father, who is also employed at the same garage.
