BEVERLYS HAVE BAD NIGHT

Busher Slams Pill Out of Park, Scoring Four. STEADY STICK WORK WINS

Sutherland Fans 11 and Plays Tight in Pinches, While Blue Bags Three Out of Four.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. ONTARIO, Cal., April 1.—(Special.)—Portland defeated the Stall & Dean semi-pros of Los Angeles this afternoon, 5 to 4, but not before the youngsters had handed the McCredie machine another ninth-inning surprise that might easily have been disastrous.

Sutherland Twists Entire Game. Sude Sutherland twisted the entire nine innings for Portland, while the angel city boys brought along with them the two big-league pitchers, Roy Odham of Detroit and Joe Piercy of New York.

Beavers Win in Seventh. Singles by Malsel and Schaller and Kingdon's two-bagger put over the two off Piercy's delivery in the seventh that eventually won for the Beavers.

Portland goes to Pasadena for a game tomorrow against some Pasadena semi-pro squad. The trip will give the Beavers an opportunity to manuever a big crowd.

Yankees Outplay Dodgers. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 1.—In an exhibition game here today the Brooklyn Nationals were outplayed by the New York Americans and lost, 6 to 2.

Baseball on the Inside. CAN you imagine a player forgetting to take his turn at bat, while his club was singing a battling rally that decided the game? Not at all.

Heavy Battling Talent Centered Here Have Hard and Satisfying Training Workouts.

BY RICHARD R. SHARP. Jay Thomas, who looks after the destinies of Hugh Walker, the fast coming young Kansas City heavyweight, who will tangled in rounds with Frank Farmer at the Milwaukee arena next Wednesday night, is besieged with offers for his battling prowess.

Both Oakland and Kansas City promoters have offered Walker a match with Fred Fulton, the Kansas City match to go 12 rounds and the Oakland bout slated for four periods.

These people who are continually making me tired, they are very encouraging, to say the least. If I didn't think I was going to whip Fulton I would not have taken the fight.
