SHOT FIRED TO SAVE HONOR, GIRL AVERS

Jury Now Has Fate of 16-Year-Old Child.

REVOLVER KEPT IN GOWN

Weapon Bought for Suicide, Says Witness, Was Used When She Was Dragged From Bed.

ST. LOUIS, April 1.—The fate of Ursula Broderick tonight rests with 12 men. The case of the 16-year-old girl, charged with first degree murder for killing her stepfather, J. F. Woodlock, who was shot to death April 14 last, went to the jury late tonight.

Judge Klene ordered that a sealed verdict be returned when after two hours no word had come from the jury room, and adjourned court, instructing the jury to report at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

In his final address to the jury, Assistant Attorney William O. Reeder urged that a conviction be returned on the charge, which would carry with it a sentence of life imprisonment.

The girl took the stand in her own behalf today and related the incidents that led to the shooting, which she says was done to protect her honor. The revolver which she used, she testified, had been bought with the intention of killing herself on account of the treatment she received by her stepfather.

Four years ago Ursula shot and killed her father, Thomas B. Broderick. She was exonerated by a coroner's jury on her testimony that she acted in defense of her mother.

On the morning of the shooting, April 14, she was asleep when Woodlock came to her bedside, she continued, and he fired the shots that ended his life.

"He picked me up and half carried me and half dragged me to his bed," she sobbed. "He told me to shut up, and when I began to cry, he said he meant to harm me, I shot him."

Mrs. Lillian Woodlock, mother of the girl and also under indictment for her husband's death, asserted that Woodlock drank heavily, and when under the influence of intoxicants made repeated attempts to attack the girl. When sober, however, she continued, he regretted his actions and always apologized to Ursula.

On one occasion, Mrs. Woodlock said, she visited the prosecuting attorney's office to complain of her husband's threats against the girl, but the office was closed.

The state is attempting to prove that Mrs. Woodlock and the girl plotted to murder Woodlock.

Russian Drives Do Not Even Bend Defense Line.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Repulse of the bolshevik attacks on all fronts is reported in official advices received today by the Polish legation, describing the general military situation up to March 26.

The first drive of the Russian armies began on February 20 on the southern front between Pripet and Dniester and lasted about two weeks. The present drive began March 12. The main attacks were directed against Lutzchoff. On the northern front the Polish line was not even bent.

The official dispatches say rumors of the defeat of the Polish army originating in Berlin are without foundation.

Forces Will Be Kept for Protection Says Chief of Staff.

HONOLULU, T. H., April 1.—(By the Associated Press)—General Baron Y. Uehara, chief of the military general staff, announced today that "Japanese forces will be retained in Siberia for the protection of the life and property of Japanese subjects, as well as for the reason of national defense," according to a cable from Tokio to the Japanese newspaper Hochi here.

This announcement is taken to mean a change in the withdrawal policy outlined by Premier Hara, the cable said.

According to Siberian reports received by Hochi, there is a strong anti-Japanese feeling among the Russians.

TIME EXTENSION URGED

DELAY WANTED IN ENFORCING NEW GARBAGE CODE.

Many Owners Declared Unable to Move Into Fireproof Buildings by Specific Date.

One year's extension of time may be given to owners now operating garages in wooden buildings before the provisions of the code ordering garages into fireproof buildings will be enforced.

A hearing to decide this point will be conducted by the city council Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the council chambers.

City Commissioner Barbur has introduced an ordinance extending the time from March 17, 1920, to March 17, 1921.

City Commissioner Barbur believes garages now in wooden buildings should be allowed to operate for only one year on the grounds that it is impossible for the owners to find new locations.

Several of the city commissioners believe that the time should be continued at least until after convention week in June.
