TAX SHORTAGE $4,000,000 & sometiments

MOST SERIOUS CONDITION IN HISTORY FACED BY CITY.

But Three Days Remain in Which First Half of Annual Dues May Be Paid Sheriff.

Multnomah county faces the most serious condition in its history so far as taxes are concerned unless property owners mail or take a veritable avalanche of checks and currency to the tax department of Sheriff Hurlburt's office by Monday night.

With but three days remaining in which the first half of the annual taxes may be paid, a delinquency of $4,000,000 was faced yesterday, which is by far a greater delinquency than ever before at this period of tax paying time.

of the $12,000,000 due in taxes this year, one-half must be paid by Monday if it is not to become delinquent. and figures given out yesterday at the sheriff's office showed that but $3,160,000 had been collected up to yesterday noon.

A long line of property owners was at the cashier's window all day yesterday and each mail brought hundreds of checks, but despite the money being received officials of the department say that the delinquencies for the first half will be far greater than ever before unless the greater than ever before unless the unexpected happens and an extraor-dinary amount of money is received during the next three days.

CORVALLIS LOSES POINT

Opinion on Right to Take Sand From River Is Given.

The city of Corvallis has no control over the sand and gravel in the Wil-lamette river, even though the leg-islature extended the corporate limits of the municipality to the middle of the stream, according to a legal opinion by Attorney-General Brown today. The attorney-general held in his bpinion that the act of the legislature of 1929 making it incumbent upon persons and firms taking sand or gravel from navigable streams of the state first to arrange for the lease and payment for the product applied to rivers within as well as outside of the boundaries of incor-porated towns and cities.

PICKETS ARE ENJOINED Interference With Patrons Charged

by Owner of Store. Presiding Judge McCourt yesterday

signed a temporary injunction re-straining the Central Labor council and union organizations from picket-ing in front of the Royal Shoe company store. The injunction suit was brought by J. A. Levy, owner of the store, who alleged the union pickets were interfering with patrons.

The temporary order was similar to others issued during recent weeks by Judge McCourt. It permitted the piacing of one picket in front of each door, providing the pickets would make no demonstration of any kind and would refrain from addressing
