

"REGISTRATION WEEK"—REGISTER AND VOTE AT THE COMING ELECTION

Ask Mr. Foster
Travel Information Service

A branch of this nationally known Travel Service is on our Sixth Floor conducted by a competent woman who furnishes travel facts without charge.

"Quick! the Lawn Mower"

will be the cry almost before you know it with the grass springing up under the influence of the recent rains. Be ready. We call for, sharpen, deliver, $1.25.—Basement.

The Film Supply

will become a more important matter to the kodak lover from now on. We have fresh stocks of genuine Eastman films. Films left before 11 any day are finished by 5 same day.—Main Floor.

Butterick Patterns

for April are ready; also April De-lineators for subscribers. Spring "Butterick Fashions" 25c copy with coupon good for 10c toward purchase of any Butterick pattern.—Second Floor.

Have Your Eyes Examined

by our skilled optometrists (accout on the "tom") if you suspect that your vision is not all it ought to be. A little care now may save you serious trouble later.—Mezzanine.

The Boys' and Girls' Own Barber

is greatly in demand for trimming wayward locks down to workman-like proportions. Fun? Ask the kiddies. Come in the morning for particularly good service.—Fifth Floor.

Today's Part in Our Plans for a Wonderful Month

BARBARIC JEWELRY

Slave bracelets—long chains with pendants—fantastic novelty necklaces from Paris—jet necklaces from France and Italy—bakelite beads in marvelous color—lovely imitation pearls—and a wealth of real amber necklaces with their store of imprisoned sunshine for a whole lifetime.

Such novelty jewelry is the fashion of the hour—it threatens even to dispossess the diamond.

The Jewelry Store is crowded with these bewitchingly barbaric novelties—and prices are reasonable.

—Meier & Frank's: Jewelry Store, Main Floor.
