

BANK ROBBER KILLED BY POLICE IN DUEL

Outlaw With Loot Trapped in Empty Theater.

PIT USED AS BARRICADE

One Dies, Four Seriously Wounded Cornering Desperado—$20,000 Taken in Daring Hold-Up.

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—A lone outlaw killed one police officer, seriously wounded three others, and he himself was killed when he held up and robbed the Easton-Taylor Trust company here of $20,000 late today.

The outlaw, carrying a revolver in each hand, entered the bank shortly after 3 o'clock. There were 15 customers in the bank and he herded them and the employees in a private room and began firing the revolver. A riot call was sounded and 50 policemen, heavily armed, responded. The outlaw obtained $20,000 from Louis F. Schneider, the cashier, and sought refuge in an adjoining theater, which was empty.

The police surrounded the theater. The desperado used the orchestra pit from which to shoot and to rise over the top of it and fire as the patrolmen entered. The gun battle lasted nearly 15 minutes, during which Policeman Terence McFarland was shot through the heart and died instantly. Patrolman Claude Adams was shot in the abdomen.

The police said the man's conduct indicated he had become crazed from drugs. The money was found concealed in his clothing.

Crouched in the pit, the robber had the advantage of being hidden by darkness while the policemen stood in the light as they entered.

John R. Langan, president of the bank, told the police the man began firing as soon as he entered and that one of the bullets passed through his hair. Several women in the institution fainted.

The robber was shot in the face so badly that police probably would be impossible to identify him.

HAWLEY MADE CHAIRMAN

WAYS AND MEANS SUB-COMMITTEE TO PLAN BUS-CON.

Oregon Representative Heads Preparation of Legislation for Aid to ex-Service Men.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Representative Hawley of Oregon today was made chairman of a sub-committee of the ways and means committee which is to consider all bills now pending before the house, proposing in any way to reclaim lands for the benefit of ex-service men.

The Smith-Pletcher bill, the Chamberlain bill and others will be taken up by the committee.

After thoroughly studying the various schemes the sub-committee will formulate a bill of its own, promising some measure of help to soldiers in the acquiring of farm homes.

The fact that Mr. Hawley is the only member of the committee from a public land state was an indication that any reclamation plan reported would be general in character, and could be extended to irrigated lands of the west, as are some of the bills introduced this session.

When the Hawley committee completes its land legislation, it will report to the full committee and the whole committee is expected to incorporate this land legislation in a general bill looking to relief of ex-service men.

The sub-committee with Mr. Hawley as representative of Missouri, Tennessee and Dickinson of Missouri.

LEGION FOR ADJUSTMENT

D'OLLIER CRITICIZES OFFICERS IN OPPOSITION.

National Commander Says Veterans' Wishes Must Govern Actions of Leaders.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Wade H. Hays, state commander of the American Legion, tonight made public a letter from Frank D'Ollier, national commander, attacking the position of legion officers who opposed the proposed adjustment compensation plan in opposition to the wishes of veterans they represent.

"You are absolutely right when you refer to the fact that all officers of the American Legion—national, state and post—must, irrespective of their personal opinions, represent the expressed opinion of the membership whom they happen to represent," read the letter.

"I must confess I have not a great deal of patience with the new type of conscientious objector who feels his responsibility of leadership to such an extent that he is stating what he personally believes his membership ought to do and ought to think, rather than what they really do think and do desire."

RUSSIA FORCE IS PRESSED

Remnant of Kolchak Army Is Reported in Serious Condition.

LONDON, April 5.—A dispatch to the London Times from Harbin, dated March 26, says the fate of the army of General Vojteckoffsky, the sole remnant of Admiral Kolchak's forces in Trans-Baikalia, calls for serious consideration. The dispatch adds that thousands of men and officers are anxious to leave bolshevik territory, but that the consent of the Chinese and Japanese has to be obtained for the exodus from Siberia and that their attitude has not yet been defined.

There is a gold reserve at Chita amounting to $0,000,000 gold rubles at the disposal of General Vojteckoffsky, the dispatch said.

CENTRALIA SLAYERS GET 25 TO 40 YEARS

Vanderveer's Motion for New Trial Denied.

APPEAL TO BE MADE

Attorney for I. W. W. Declares Verdict Prejudiced and Not Fixing Guilt of Any.

MONTESSANO, Wash., April 5.—(Special.)—Judge John M. Wilson today sentenced the seven I. W. W. convicted on March 12 of second-degree murder for the Centralia Armistice-day massacre, to 25 to 40 years in the state penitentiary at Walla Walla.

Roberts, the eighth defendant, was imprisoned in the state hospital. Immediately after sentence was pronounced Vanderveer gave notice that he would appeal the case. The I. W. W. who were sentenced were: Britt Smith, O. C. Bland, Bert Bland, John Lamb, Eugene Barnett, Ray Becker and James McInerney.

Vanderveer gave three grounds on which he asked a new trial: First, that the verdict was "senseless"; that it decided nothing; that it did not really determine the guilt of the men, and that the verdict was therefore "meaningless."

Second, that there had been grave errors in law during the trial and in the court's instructions.

Third, Harry Sellers, a juror, had perjured himself in order to "sneak onto the jury"; that he bore a prejudice against the defendants and an opinion before he was chosen for jury service.

Vanderveer declared that the bringing of federal troops to Montessano during the course of the trial was designed to intimidate the jury and added that the jury was intimidated was the unanimous opinion of the public, which constituted the verdict a travesty on justice.

In answering Vanderveer's arguments, C. D. Cunningham of Centralia and W. H. Abel of Montessano, for the state, said it was useless to discuss the first two grounds of Vanderveer's attack, and they confined themselves to the Sellers affidavit. Abel pointed out that Sellers denied having made the statements accredited to him and declared that one of the affidavits had been made by a paid investigator for the I. W. W.

Prosecution Raps Verdict. Both Cunningham and Abel expressed dissatisfaction with the verdict.

"Everybody knows," said Cunningham, "that Loren Roberts, who was acquitted on the ground of insanity, is not insane."

Abel contended that the verdict was unjust because it was too lenient. In attempted proof of his point that the verdict defeated justice, Vanderveer read from editorials of newspapers condemning the verdict as too lenient. "Will a court of law," he asked, "respect the views of the public and grant a continuance of this case till justice can be done?"

Harking back to his oft-repeated demands for a change of venue, Vanderveer said the verdict merely confirmed his statement that "no jury verdict can come out of Grays Harbor county" in this case.

Court's Instructions Scored. Attacking the court's instructions as error in law, Vanderveer said the court had failed to instruct the jury in the right of free speech, free assembly and the right of such an organization as the I. W. W. to own a hall and defend it in case of attack.

"So far as the jury was aware," he said, "these defendants had no rights except the right to be hanged." Of the five affidavits against Sellers, one said that Sellers at Lima, prior to the trial, had said: "When they kill our soldiers they kill our best friends."

Another statement attributed to Sellers was: "I am going to be one of the jurors and I'll hang every damn one of them." The affidavit containing this statement was made by the I. W. W. investigator.
