DRUG USER HUNTED AS DEPUTY'S SLAYER

Haunts of Addicts Searched to Find Desperado.

WOUND MAY BE CLEW

Scattle Hospitals Are Watched for Man Believed to Have Been Wounded by Sheriffs.

SEATTLE, Wash. April 5 .- (Special.)-Police and deputy sheriffs of this city and throughout the Pacific northwest were engaged today in searching all haunts of recognized narcotic addicts, hoping to find the man who, leaving his companion dead In an automobile in which they had left the scene of their robberies and the killing of Robert C. Scott, deputy sheriff, in Rainier valley, disappeared in the direction of Seattle waterfront arry yesterday.

The suspect who escaped is believed to have been a user of narcotic drugs for the reason that he was with Cady, who was known to the police to have been a narcotic drug user at one time.

Blackie" is the only name the police have for the escaped man. In the pockets of Cady was found a card in the teamsters' union. Hospitals Are Searched.

From letters on Cady there also may be clews. All persons from whom the letters were received, toand cards, will be traced down.

The body of Elmer Cady, the slain outlaw, was identified at the city morgue this afternoon by Mrs. Laura McKenney, 3704 West Webster street, his sister, and by her husband, Archie McKenney. The couple, after ex-pressing surprise that Cady had not been in California, as they supposed were called into conference with Sheriff Stringer. The sheriff ques-tioned Mr. and Mrs. McKenney to see if they could throw any light on who Cady's companions might have been, but they were unable to help.

Mr. Scott, who worked out of the office of District Attorney Evans as a special agent in the investigation of liquor cases for more than a year, was called to Seattle last fall by Sheriff Stringer, who wanted his assistance in running jewelry thieves to earth. Scott had been working on this class of cases when he went to the assistance of his fellow deputies Saturday night in another case.

District Attorney Evans characterized Mr. Scott as one of the best investigators of prohibition violations who ever worked out of his office and, because of his record of arrests and convictions in Portland, he was put on the staff of the late Governor Withycombe in similar investigations for the state. Mr. Scott was 31 years old and a native of Oklahoma, although he had lived in Oregon since a small boy. He had been married seven years and leaves a widow and two small chil-dren. A father and brother also sur-vive. Funeral arrangements have not CAUSE-Neurasthenia is a condition of nervous exhaustion caused by the excessive expenditure of nervous energy without proper rest. Influenza, great grief, extreme anxiety, shocks and rheumatism are contributing causes.

VMPTOMS-Victims feel extreme nervousness bordering on hys-teria. Imaginary troubles are worried over and blamed on others. Sleep is fitful, the ap-petite is variable, indigestion frequently occurs. "As a result I was practically a nervous wreck. There was a pain in the back of my head and I was so weak that I suffered repeatedly from dizzy spells. I was eas-ily excited and worried a great deal over trouble that didn't exist. I was restless and felt that I must be on the move. My sleep was broken and un-restful and I had very little appetite. "I had heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for years and finally, when I continued to grow weaker and to lose weight, I procured a box and began taking the pills. Within a week my appetite improved. Then I began to regain my strength. I gained weight and my nerves became stronger. I feel practically as well as ever now, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You know that spring feeling of being oom in the house. After living shut up all winter, the wallpaper seems dingy, the rugs ugly and every piece of furniure looks like something from the zoo. Along about dandelion time, I always begin to shift things about but the more move them the worse they seem. This year I was in despair. I made ap my mind we would have to repaper and repaint, and buy a lot of new draperies, furniture and rugs. So I sent for the painter and the paperhanger. But when I got their estimates, I just had to lie down and rest. Then I made a tour of the stores, and phi the lovely things I saw. And oh! the lovely prices! At last one evening, I handed to my busband a list of the things I thought we needed, and the cost. He took one look at it, then at me, and we both jus' burst out laughing.

"What do you think I am," he said. "a munition worker?"

Then came the reaction and we were both as glum as we could be. He satwith his eyes on the ceiling, and all of a sudden he said:

"Gee, how I hate that old chandelier!" "Me, too," I replied, "but when we bought it, we thought it was exquisite." "By Jove!".

he said. "that reminds me. Coming out on the car one day I overheard an architect talking to his client. He was saying this. "The trouble with half the homes in something like this city is that the lighting effect is wrong. People buy fixtures because they pretty, instead of buying lighting effects. Oftentimes, by simply changing the distribution of light, I have shown people how to save hundreds of dollars that they were intending to spend on re-decorating or on now furnishings. You see, the old fashioned kind of lighting made a glare around the chandelier, and left great chunks of gloom along the walls and floor. The new idea in lighting is to get plenty of light in all parts of the room, without too much anywhere. This new system, called the Duplexelite, does that. It has made it possible for the first time to use in the home the Mazda C lamp, which is the most efficient and economical lamp yet discovered.

To cut a long story short, my husband made some inquiries the very next day. He found that Duplexalites had long been used in several of our leading retail stores and in the best hotels and were even going to be installed in his own office. He also found that in the home they could be used with beautiful shades of silk, cretonne or parchments and so can be made to harmonize with any decorative scheme in any room, no matter how elaborate or how simple.

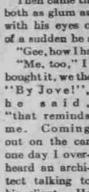

lites in an hour, that settled it.

The upshot of it is -- that for less than $100 we have succeeded in actually doing our home over, without repapering or repainting a single room, or buying a stick of furniture-just by changing the lighting. And, as they say in the movies, "You wouldn't know the old place now."
