local club will also be awarded the boxing tryouts and in fact Sam Goodman of San Francisco, vice-president of the Amateur Athletic union, has issued a statement saying that the boxing goes to the winged-M club although Mr. Dunne has not yet received official notice of the award.

It is planned to hold the boxing and wrestling tryouts at the same time, probably during the last week in June. The combination meet will be held two nights and it is expected that the event will be the biggest amateur tournament of its kind on the Pacific coast. Seven States to Compete.

The tryouts for the Pacific coast in wrestling and boxing will take in all territory formerly known as the far western district and will com-prise the states of Washington, Idaho, Oregon, California, Montana, Nevada and Colorado. At the same time that the tryouts are being held at the Multnomah club other trials will be staged in the mid-western and Atlantic sec-tions and the winners from the three districts will gather at New York for the final boxing tryouts and at Bos-ton for final wrestling tryouts.
