

DR. BOWMAN CALLED BY PRESBYTERIANS

Chicago Man Asked to Take First Church Pulpit.

$7000 YEAR IS OFFERED

Acceptance as Successor to Rev. John H. Boyd Is Expected. Pastor's Work Is Lauded.

Unanimous call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Portland at a salary of $7000 a year was extended to Rev. Harold Leonard Bowman, D. D. of Chicago, Monday night by an adjourned congregational meeting.

Dr. Bowman is pastor of the Woodlawn Park Presbyterian church of Chicago, where he has made such a wonderful record that although he was not among the first several strong ministers of the denomination under consideration by the committee of the Portland congregation, practically every one who had intimate knowledge of the local situation and of his remarkable work directed the searchers for a successor to Dr. John H. Boyd toward the young pastor of Woodlawn Park.

Acceptance Is Expected.

That Dr. Bowman will favorably consider the call and will become pastor of the First Presbyterian church, there is now scarcely any doubt. While it is admitted that he has not pledged himself to come, it is as frankly said that he, although at the outset was rather inclined to remain in Chicago, is practically convinced, because of the unusual features of the situation, that it is a divine call and that he should accept.

Dr. Boyd himself, now professor of homiletics in McCormick university, the Presbyterian school in Chicago, knowing the Portland situation in all its details, became one of Dr. Bowman's strongest advocates both verbally and by letter. Dr. Edgar P. Hill and William Hiram Foskies, church pastors of the First Presbyterian church here, likewise had good words for him and every business man and all others interviewed with one accord recommended him for all around ability.

Not only did they recommend Dr. Bowman, but in every instance they also referred to the most complimentary terms to his wife who, they declared, has been his constant helper in all of his work.

Search Made for Year. Such was the report made by Mr. Ross for the committee, which for nearly a year searched the country over for the right man. Other members were George Lawrence Jr., A. S. Paulino, E. H. Crozier, Thornton T. Munger, Mrs. L. Stacey and Mrs. W. B. Osborne. They received a vote of thanks and were continued in their present positions.

Rev. Levi Johnson, assistant pastor, acted as moderator last night. Dr. Howard Agnew Johnston, present supply pastor, who is personally acquainted with Dr. Bowman, paid him a glowing tribute.

"He is the sweetest man I know," said Dr. Johnston. "You will all fall in love with him within a month. You are to be congratulated."

Chicago pastors who know of Dr. Bowman's work and who have written letters in his favor include Dr. John Timothy Stone, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Dr. Cleland E. McAfee of McCormick.

Dr. Bowman heard in Omaha, Neb., and was graduated from Coe college, near Hartford, Conn. For three years he was instructor in the Syrian Protestant college in Beirut. He is also a graduate of McCormick. He was for one year assistant to Dr. Stone and for two years assistant to Dr. Charles F. Whitart of the Second Presbyterian church.

Probably it was Dr. Bowman's work as pastor of the Woodlawn Park church, Chicago, which attracted the attention of the leaders of the denomination more than anything else. During the several years in charge there he has built up the pastorate from a small membership until it now has 1300 enrollment. He is described as a strong, forceful preacher, whose congregation often overflows his church.

Should Dr. Bowman accept the call tendered him last night he will probably assume the duties of the pastorate about August 1. Dr. Johnston will supply the pulpit until May 1. Dr. Boyd will preach during May, June and July.

ANTI-BOLSHEVİK FORCES PREPARE TO RESIST REDS.

Inroads of Typhus on Attacking Army Regarded as Aid to Defenders of City.

bolshevik troops will make their last stand against the reds. The population in this part of the Crimea has been increased from 25,000 to 60,000. Many persons are living in freight cars or in small boats anchored in the harbor. There is much sickness here, the hospitals being filled with persons suffering from typhus.

Theodosia has become the base of both the volunteer army and the allied fleets. Denikin's forces hope to hold the armies and maintain a connection between the Crimea and the Russian mainland. Supplies of various sorts, especially food, are short, and consequently the situation is likely to become critical.

Foreign military officers who have watched the evacuation of Novorossisk and other places in the south, are not optimistic about the defense of the Crimea, because they assert the morale of the volunteer troops is low and there is no general disposition to make a vigorous defensive campaign.

However, the natural defenses are extremely effective and the red army has been so shattered by the typhus that the volunteers may hold their ground.

The American Red Cross and other relief contingents are giving aid in evacuating refugees across the Black sea. Urgent cases are being taken care of by American torpedo boat destroyers, which are conveying refugees to Prinkipos island, where the American Red Cross has established a refugee colony.

The American shipping board steamer Sangamon, with a cargo of several million dollars' worth of munitions, locomotives and the like, is now unloading here, after a wait of 54 days at Novorossisk. The delay in unloading was due to a controversy concerning the payment of $300,000 demurrage charges which the Russian authorities will endeavor to meet by giving the Sangamon a cargo of wheat.

SINN FEINERS RAID WHOLE OF IRELAND

Secrecy of Coups Indicates Complete Organization.

100 BARRACKS WRECKED

Income Tax Papers Destroyed When Homes of Collectors Are Ransacked.

DUBLIN, April 6.—Though there was no Easter rebellion the Sinn Feiners gave the government nearly as much annoyance as it there had been. They demonstrated also their widespread organization and the secrecy with which they planned to execute their coups simultaneously in every part of the island.

Not only were tax offices and police barracks attacked, but private residences of tax collectors were also raided. Papers were removed and destroyed, but in these raids no one was injured.

The destruction of tax records will greatly embarrass the government and delay the collection of the income tax.

Nearly 100 police stations and barracks all over Ireland were demolished. They had, however, been previously abandoned by the government because of the difficulty of the few policemen in charge holding them against attacks by hundreds of armed men.

Extensive military precautions were taken in and around Dublin and other cities and the examination of persons entering or leaving was directed at preventing a possible armed revolt. But no such comprehensive plan of outrage against public offices and barracks as occurred was foreseen.

Raids were carried out on customs and excise offices in some places, notably at Renagh and Sligo, where income tax papers were destroyed.

The Dublin postoffice this morning reported a general stoppage of telegraphic communication to North Ireland.

MISS PICKFORD DEFENDED

DR. BROUGHER SAYS FILM STAR HAD DIVORCE GROUNDS.

"Scriptural Cause" for Separation From Owen Moore Is Held Sufficient—Reason Guarded.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 6.—(Special.)—Did Mary Pickford have Scriptural grounds for her divorce from Owen Moore? Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, who performed the ceremony uniting the two stars, said that Douglas Fairbanks, says she had such grounds. He would not divulge the nature of the Scriptural cause, stating that it had been told to him in strict confidence.

There is only one Scriptural ground for divorce, according to the Bible, permits of remarriage. The Temple Baptist church pastor admitted that in gross infidelity Miss Pickford had broken the Scriptural ground in her petition for separation from Owen Moore. She alleged cruelty and desertion.

"I went into all the facts of Miss Pickford's married life before I performed the ceremony," said Dr. Brougher. "What she believes there before me I felt warranted in performing the marriage. While there is only one Scriptural ground for divorce stated in the Bible, there are others in an inferential sense."

"For instance, absolute desertion in the most susceptible and archaic and I. W. propaganda," declared Dow V. Walker Monday night, addressing members of the Daddies' club and their wives. "And what you, as the fathers and mothers of ex-service men, can do to help the American Legion most is to build for the future, not only in helping to reclaim those of our boys who have gone astray in this manner, but also in helping to mould a policy of true patriotism in the public schools."

"We also ask you to encourage the boys in their legion work and to be ready to assist us in every way possible next winter, for the coming year may bring even more serious problems than we have had to face in the past. Our cause, which is that of trying to make the country a better place to live in, is worthy of our best efforts, and the Daddies' club is in a position to aid the work of the American Legion in many ways."

"I also refuse to state what the Scriptural ground actually was, as a minister cannot make public private affairs told him in strict confidence."
