TAXES DUE AFTER MAY

Issnance of Warrants Likely to Be Stopped When Cash on Hand Is Exhausted.

SALEM, Or., April 7. - (Special.)-Although the current expense of contreasurer only $11,086.86 to meet these obligations until the tax money for the year 1920 commences to arrive shortly after May 1, according to a financial report prepared today by 0. P. Hoff, state treasurer.

The report shows total expenditures during the period from January March 31 of $6,762,967.38, and a ance in the state highway fund of $1.617,528.84. Under the classification of cash on hand there is $2,427,705.10. but this is said to be merely a pape showing, as outstanding warrants will absorb most of this sum. Current expenses for the three months covered in the report totaled $972,000.

Joseph Richardson, assistant state treasurer, said this afternoon that the general fund was the lowest now for many years, and that in case the $11 00 balance now in the hands of th state treasurer was exhausted th secretary of state probably would re-fuse to issue more warrants against the fund until sufficient tax money had been received to meet the obliga-secretary of state to discontinue the issuance of warrants against the gen-eral fund because of lack of money in the treasury, it would be possible that the army of men and women now in the employ of the state would have to wait until as late as May 10 before receiving compensation their services during the month of April. Payment of other claims which are checked against the general fund would be delayed for a like

POINDEXTER WILL SPEAK

Senator Accepts Invitation Extended by Local Club.

Under the auspices of the Portland Press club. Senator Miles Poindexter will speak at the Portland Chamber of Commerce at noon luncheon Wednesday, May 5. Invitations have been sent to all of the prominently-mentioned presidential candidates to be the guests of the club on the occasion of a visit to the Pacific coast and the acceptance of several has been received, contingent upon their com-ing to Oregon during the ante-con-rention period. Senator Poindexter is the first to name a definite date when he will be in Portland.

It is the intention of the Press club to invite all of the other civic clubs to make reservations for the lunch-ean, limited by the capacity of the big dining room of the chamber. It is expected that other presidential can-didates will be entertained in the near future, but definite advice has not yet been received.

BOURBON QUERIES HOOVER

Will You Accept Democratic Nomination if Offered You?" Asked. BOSTON, April 7.—Chandler W. Wood, chairman of the executive committee of the democratic state committee, made public tonight a letter which he had sent to Herbert Hoover, asking whether Mr. Hoover would asking whether Mr. Hoover would accept the democratic nomination for president if it were offered to him.

In the letter Mr. Wood said that he had assisted in the organization of the Hoover democratic club of Massachusetts, and added:

"Since the formation of our club, I have seen a statement purporting to manate from you in which you said republican convention. I feel that the democrats who are active parti-cipants in the movement for you nomination upon their ticket are en titled to know whether or not you will accept the democratic nomination if offered you."
