Mr. Starkweather was born in Checkamas county in 1888 and has been prominently identified with the educational, industrial and political development of Oregon. He was a member of the commission which drafted the original workmen's compensation act and was a member of the government commission which made the rural credits investigation in several European countries.

He has been country school superintendent of Clackamas county, and city superintendent and principal of the high school at La Grande. For 20 years he has devoted his attention principally to farming and for 14 years has been president of his school board. For two years Mr. Starkweather was democratic chairman for the past two years.
