

SIR OLIVER LODGE

question for statesmen to answer. However, I do believe the English-speaking peoples, at least, should have some organization for their permanent peace. Whether others can at this time enter into it, I cannot say. I am not for 'the league, but a league'.

Noted Scientist Will Speak on "Other World."

Communication with the "other world" by human beings, is so well established that it is now a fact, at least to the entire satisfaction of Sir Oliver Lodge, world-famed scientist and psychological researcher of England, who arrives here for a period of California yesterday afternoon and registered at the Hotel Algonquin.

SPIRITISM NEEDS STUDY

"Probably Takes Long Time to Get to Heaven," Is Opinion Expressed by Distinguished Investigator.

That there is survival of men and women after physical death, he fully proved, the distinguished visitor declared, but he frankly admitted that neither he or any other of the deepest students of the occult have positive knowledge as yet as to how. Many families who suffered separation by death during the war, he said, have been reunited through this science.

Sir Oliver regards the development of occult research as fairly satisfactory in America, and said that while he cannot say for certain that the science of spiritualism will become generally known, he believes it will in time. It will require very great, determined study, he said, to enable the peoples of the world to understand much of this great source of power. He is now expected to live at least 10 years more, during which he intends to devote himself to "setting down" his experiences in form in his own writings some of the things he has discovered and which he has never had the time to record as completely as he wishes for future generations.

Sir Oliver Proves Affable. Accompanied by Captain Wallace Widdowson of New York, his secretary, Sir Oliver has been traveling through the east and south since his arrival in this country last January. Easy of approach and kindly in greeting, Sir Oliver yesterday afternoon not only placed himself at the disposal of a reporter, breaking away from penning an article to do so, but he also sat for a photographer, and the room being rather dark because of the rain, assisted the camera man by letting up some blinds and suggesting an attitude that would get the best results.

"Having just come from California," laughed Sir Oliver, "I am finding myself in a rather wet atmosphere for a dry state. But I understand you need the rain here, as they did in California. I don't mind it a bit."

After sitting for a photograph, Sir Oliver, whose figure is tall, whose hair is white and whose face bears kindness, occupied a convenient seat and was ready to talk.

"My long study of the atoms of matter and energy, and the space which fills the interstices and which is responsible for both cohesion and gravitation, prevents them to be of the earth, as you would say. There is a great deal of evidence to support the belief that it seems likely our power will be taken from the atoms of matter direct in the future, instead of by combustion or chemical processes, as now."

"I think that ether also has a positive psychic significance, as well as a physical significance. I believe that life and mind are made of ether as well as of matter and that this is in a more permanent way. We use matter as of a space of from 70 to 80 years and then it wears out, as does the human body; but I think the ether is ever renewed and new."

"That there is life after the physical death is established. I am not dogmatic as to the manner of its existence, but as to the fact of its existence I am dogmatic, because I have established that fact."

Mediums Generally Necessary. "As to getting into communication with those who have experienced physical death, it is not always possible to do it oneself. I have never been able to do it myself. I have always had to go to a medium—in fact, I have had many of them, a number very satisfactory."

Sir Oliver was asked as to his experience in communicating with his own son, and replied that "this has been very satisfactory." He said he had communicated but once since coming to America, as he does not know the mediums over here and could not well take up the subject with them without first consulting them. The one to whom he went he had previously known in England.

"The fact that one cannot communicate with one's departed save through a medium is nothing at all out of the ordinary, if you stop to think about it," he went on. "If I want to receive an interpretation of Beethoven, for example, do I not have to go to a medium—a musical artist for that? Certain it is that I myself cannot do it, for I am not a musical artist. Why should it appear stranger in the one case than the other? As soon as we know more of the so-called mysteries of the psychic world, why, they will regard this question more as one of other great things which have been revealed to the soul or understanding of mankind."

"We are so limited—we human animals—that it requires a long time for us to learn about the many wonderful things about us. We are like a horse, you might say; we can only grasp what we can understand and the rest we have to reach out for and, being human, we can study, and only by long, determined study of this all-important question may we learn about it. There is no short cut, and those who would reap the benefits must study it."

"I studied the question for 20 years before I became convinced of the realities of the psychic life and so I do not wonder that there are many scoffers or those who disbelieve it. I am willing to be patient with them."

Life Beyond Is Gradation. "As I intimated previously, I do not know just what form the life beyond takes on, but we have much evidence from the departed that it is a gradation and that it probably takes a long time to get to heaven. That there is less of change than they expected is the statement of a majority from whom we have heard."

CITY CONSIDERS CLAIMS

COMMITTEE ON AUDITORIUM IS APPOINTED. Mayor Baker and Commissioners Barbur and Pier Vote to Adopt Resolution of Investigation.

Efforts of City Commissioners Mann and Bigelow to prevent the appointment of a committee to investigate the claims filed against the city by bondsmen for Hans Anderson who constructed the public auditorium building, failed yesterday, when Mayor Baker and Commissioners Barbur and Pier voted to adopt the resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee of three.

For months Commissioner Bigelow has waged a vigorous fight to prevent the investigation of the claims by the city. During the last month he has been joined in this fight by Commissioner Mann.

The committee authorized by the resolution is composed of W. C. North, W. V. Masters and Richard Martin Jr. The committee will serve without compensation.

Commissioner Bigelow yesterday attempted to prevent the authorization of the investigation on the ground that it was contrary to the city charter, which provides that all claims against the city for damages must be filed within six months.

Hood River Growers Replace Colonies Lost in Winter.

HOOD RIVER, Or., April 14.—(Special.)—Having lost their bees last winter, a number of local orchardists here are busy replacing the colonies from the Santa Clara valley, California. A. G. Wing, Barrett grower, yesterday received one of the heaviest shipments, totaling 12,000 bees.

Each pound, it was estimated, contained 5000 bees. With the lot Mr. Wing received 12 queens.

"I attribute the loss of my bees last winter," said Mr. Wing, "to their weakened condition resulting from spray poisoning in the summer. They entered the cold weather so weak that they were unable to pull through."

Retailers' Supplies Low; Orchardists Lose Stocks by Frost.

HOOD RIVER, Or., April 14.—(Special.)—A canvass of the stocks of local grocers today indicates a potato famine in Hood River soon. Potatoes are being detailed here at prices ranging from $7.50 to $9.50 for a hundred pounds. Except for growers who had commercial plantings and had their crops stored, orchardists are without potatoes, in most instances having no supply during the cold weather of December.

The record price for a carload of potatoes here is reported by John Sullivan, who sold the last of his crop, o. b. Parkdale at $7.10 for 100 pounds.

Big Fortune Accumulated. Roger Sullivan as a business man, had been no less successful than as a politician. Coming to Chicago in 1879 to work in the railroad shops as an apprentice machinist at $125 a day, he was reported to have accumulated more than $1,000,000.

He was born on a farm near Belvidere, Ill., February 2, 1851. His education was obtained in the public schools and he was first employed as a farm boy at $5 a month.

The Daily News describes Mr. Bonar Law's attitude as "merciless indifference."

Emphasis is laid by the Daily Mail on the fact that many of the hunger strikers have not been convicted, properly constituted courts of justice.

What can we do about it? She doesn't know that Schilling Tea is really cheaper. She thinks she is saving money by buying common tea.

She thinks she is sacrificing—That's just what she is doing. She is sacrificing everything: health, pleasure, rest, cheer—and money.

Can you do anything about it? We can't. Maybe her grocer can.
