CONTINUOUS BALL SURE

PLANS PROVIDE FOR GAMES EVERY SUNDAY OF SEASON.

When Beavers Are Not at Home, Semi-Pro Teams Will Have Use of Vaughn-Street Park.

Portland fans will be treated to continuous Sunday ball of either semi-pro or professional brand, according to the plans now being mapped out by the Portland Baseball association.

Three catchers are listed on Williams' roster at present. Griffith of Sacramento, Armand of Camp Lewis and Shoots of Portland, formerly with Spokane in the International league.

Bob Marshall, a catcher, of Portland, an ex-Yankee player, who has played with several class A teams, is expected to join the team soon.

All of the games of the Canadian league are what is known as twilight games, being played late in the afternoon, so as to insure a larger attendance.

The Moosejaw team got but little practice with the Oregon varsity. Rain interfered with most of the practice games, and the field was so wet and muddy that the leaguers could get but little results in the way of workouts.

CODY RETURNS FROM DETROIT

Multnomah Not to Enter Polo Team in National Tryouts.

Jack Cody, swimming instructor of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, returned yesterday from Detroit, where last Saturday his star pupil, Miss Thekla Payne, won her third national fancy diving crown. Otto Ritter, who is active in eastern Amateur Union circles and who was one of the judges in the last Olympic games, was one of the officials in the meet. "Eastern swimming authorities and fans could hardly understand the winning of the national title by a western team for three years hand running," said Cody yesterday. The Multnomah club will not send a water polo team to the national championships at San Francisco as the expense and the fact that the local boys, while they are considered to be the best team in the northwest, have not had the experience necessary to make them contenders for the national title, are given as the reasons.

Macabees Plan Ball Circuit.

ALBANY, Or., April 15.—(Special.)—A baseball league of teams representing the lodges of Knights of the Macabees in Albany, Corvallis, Jefferson and Mill City is in prospect. The local lodge has taken the initiative in forming the organization.

Will Issue a Similar Order with regard to boxing. French soldiers are not as keen for baseball, so the war ministry has not yet decided what game it will order them to play during the summer months.

Trout Catches Indifferent.

ABERDEEN, Wash., April 15.—(Special.)—Anglers who have tried the various trout streams of the county report only indifferent catches. Much better success is expected with the advent of seasonable weather.

But blame Americans as they will. Frenchmen have to admit that the sporting instinct of the American and British soldiers, who were here, served a good purpose during the war, and are now producing fine results. The French soldiers rapidly became fond of football. Now peace reveals Frenchmen trying to be as good sports as are their allies.

The Ministry of War has issued an order making football practice obligatory in the French army. Special arrangements will be made with private sporting associations to match teams of soldiers at football, while gridirons will be laid out near all the important military training towns. It is expected that the ministry of war men raised their hands in horror and many exclaimed: "Another American plot."

Now Americans are called upon in barber shops, restaurants and cafes to explain their part in bringing about the European champion's marriage, and they find it difficult to convince the Frenchmen that they had nothing to do with this particular "match."

The fact that Dempsey is married apparently does not weigh with Frenchmen in their strange reasoning. Frenchwomen as well as men fear that Carpentier's marriage has robbed France of her best chance to capture the heavyweight championship of the world.

As soon as it became whispered that an American had introduced Carpentier to the girl he married, French-

French Hold Idea That Career of Pugilist Ends When Bonds of Matrimony Are Entered.

(Copyright by The New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

PARIS, April 15.—Americans have been blamed for many things in Europe, but the latest charge against them came this evening. That is that Americans are responsible for the recent marriage of Georges Carpentier, the French idea is that the career of a pugilist ends when he marries. There are any number of Frenchmen who, before Carpentier's wedding, firmly believed him to be the greatest boxer alive. Now they regard his chances to defeat Jack Dempsey as very slim.

As soon as it became whispered that an American had introduced Carpentier to the girl he married, French-
