RENT PLAN DUE TODAY

MAYOR TO RECEIVE RECOMMENDATIONS OF ATTORNEY.

Lionel C. Mackay Finds Some Landlords Deriving Meager Return, Others Profiteering.

Recommendations as to the best means of handling the rent situation in Portland will be made to Mayor Baker today by Lionel C. Mackay, assistant city attorney, to whom the subject was referred after the council had authorized an investigation.

Mr. Mackay devoted yesterday to further investigation of the subject, with the result that he found there are some cities, among them Seattle

600 ARE VACCINATED

For the second time this week the city health bureau quarantined a student of Lincoln high school who had contracted smallpox, when yesterday Benjamin F. Gulik was sent home.

Nearly 600 students were vaccinated at the building, the doctors reporting only few objections, as apparently the parents had carried all of their complaints to school headquarters.

Disatisfaction expressed following Thursday's meeting of the school directors and their desire to interest the state board of health roused Dr. Roberts to build up and is one of the most remarkable artistic series of sketches ever made on the flora of Oregon, will be taken to Reed college, there to remain a few days.

On Monday the exhibit, which is being held under the auspices of the Audubon society and the University of Oregon, will be taken to Reed college, there to remain a few days.
