Dr. A. J. Sullers Declares Christian Organization Bulwark Against Unrest.

Representatives of 76 Portland churches in conference in the M. A. Auditorium last night unanimously agreed to take over the canvass of the business section of the city during the simultaneous financial campaign of the interchurch world wide campaign, which starts April 25. More than 200 parishes and lay representatives of the Portland churches co-operating in the interchurch campaign were in attendance at the meeting.

According to the plans determined last night each church will appoint a committee to assist in the canvass for the $7,000 asked of Multnomah county for the "citizens' division" of the interchurch budget.

Dr. A. J. Sullers, Oregon director for the congressional new era movement, in addressing the conference declared that "upon the Christian organization rests the task of bulwarking against the evils of dissension and unrest which are threatening the world."
