

JOHNSON APPEALS FOR VOICE OF LABOR

Portland Placarded With Campaign Posters.

"TESTIMONIAL" IS SIGNED

Senator Only Candidate Seeking Support of One Class of Citizens.

There was launched in Portland yesterday an aggressive campaign to line up the organized labor vote of the city for Hiram W. Johnson, senator from California.

The appeal to class is made dominant in the testimonial of loyalty and appreciation that is being put out by the labor unions.

John I. Nolan, who acted as legislative agent for labor interests at Sacramento, is quoted as saying that organized labor will continue to have Johnson in the governor's chair.

John A. Gurney, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, secretary of the Portland Labor Council, San Francisco, and secretary of the California State Federation of Labor, is quoted as saying that organized labor will continue to have Johnson in the governor's chair.

P. H. McCarthy in List. Among the many names included on the statement is that of P. H. McCarthy, member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners.

Daniel J. White, vice-president Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers International Alliance, San Francisco, is quoted as saying that organized labor will continue to have Johnson in the governor's chair.

E. L. Brock, member, Pattern Makers League of America, vice-president California State Federation of Labor, Richmond, is quoted as saying that organized labor will continue to have Johnson in the governor's chair.

W. E. Lester, member, Building Trades Council, is quoted as saying that organized labor will continue to have Johnson in the governor's chair.

"PEOPLES BANK" OPENS

City's New Financial Institution Cordially Welcomed.

Portland's newest bank, the Peoples Bank, received a warm welcome when it threw open its doors for the first time yesterday in the new Gordon building.

The Peoples Bank, located at 4th and Stark streets, was founded by a group of people who were dissatisfied with the service of the old banks.

The Peoples Bank will have a distinct issue, that of favoring the league of nations with or without reservations.

mine, you should not want to represent them. The same is true of myself. I therefore propose to you to join with me in a frank statement to the republican party that we will submit the question of our candidacy to them upon the above issue, without further expense to either of us except such as may be necessary to present the issue to the electorate.
