BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Portland's assortment of hand-painted baseball athletes arrived in the city last night and if Jupiter Pluvius gets up on the near morning, the lid on Pacific Coast league baseball in Portland for the season of 1920 will be pried open at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Los Angeles club will furnish the opposition. Opposing pitchers probably will be Pertica for the Angels and Kallio for Portland.

Furniture Being Dusted. Groundkeeper Ed Krempler began dusting the furniture in the clubhouse at an early hour.

A baseball clubhouse is in order only after the opening ball game. Weather predictions for today are fairly auspicious.

The Baseball Boosters, under the tutelage of "Prexy" Frank Callahan, have been buzzing around like a swarm of bees for the past week drumming up patrons.

Led by a band and with all the dignitaries and the ball players in automobiles, the parade is scheduled to start from 14th and Alder at 1 o'clock sharp.

Fast Double Play in Eighth Doubles Result of Game. SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—A fast double play in the eighth inning cut off Salt Lake's hopes of victory today, and Oakland won, 3 to 2.

Band to Serenade. Led by a band and with all the dignitaries and the ball players in automobiles, the parade is scheduled to start from 14th and Alder at 1 o'clock sharp.

Over the long distance telephones from Corvallis yesterday Walter McCredie made the announcement that Paddy Signin had been turned back to Portland by the Detroit Americans.

Although Signin has been turned back to Portland he hasn't joined the club. Judging from the tenor of the big manager's remarks over the wire, Signin is doing his annual "hold-out" act on the McCredies.

If Paddy doesn't want to rejoin Portland Manager McCredie thinks he can procure Ellison or some other capable major league infielder.

The Los Angeles ball club will arrive in Portland this morning from southern California.

Manager Killifer's club is almost the same as that which led the Pacific Coast league last fall until the final series with Vernon.
