

SMYRNA OWNERSHIP NOT GIVEN GREECE

Allies Remember President Wilson's Objection.

DARDANELLES TO BE FREE

Premier Millerand Expresses Regret Because America Not Co-operating in Turkish Treaty.

PARIS, April 22.—The allied supreme council this morning continued its elaboration of the treaty with Turkey, which it is believed will be finished today, according to the San Remo correspondent of the Havas agency. Having in mind the reservations formulated by President Wilson in his note of last month, the correspondent says, the council decided not to allocate immediately and definitely the Smyrna wedge to Greece.

In view of the fact that the incorporation of the Mohammedan element, especially since the war, has obliged many Greeks to quit the territory, a plebiscite will be held a few years hence to determine the final disposition of the region.

League to Receive Complaints.

With regard to the protection of minorities, the correspondent continues, the Ottoman government will be compelled to pledge itself to respect the different beliefs. Every act contrary to neutrality in this respect will be considered by the co-contracting powers as a violation of the treaty and may lead to military repression. Representatives of the league of nations will be installed in Constantinople to receive the complaints of the minorities, if there are any.

The receipt of the German note asking permission for the maintenance of an army of 200,000 minimum strength has produced a lively impression on the members of the council. In Italian and British circles, however, it did not seem to cause surprise and even appeared to be favorably regarded.

The German appeal, in fact, accords with ideas already expressed by the chief of the Italian government. The opinion expressed in French circles is that if, in view of the danger of bolshevism, this demand is granted, France ought to receive guarantees against any attempt at revenge on the part of Germany.

Germany Not Invited.

The San Remo correspondent of the Matin says he has been informed that the propositions of Premier Nitti and Lioy George on the question of dealing with Germany culminated in a suggestion that Germany be invited to take part in the conference here.

However, adds the correspondent, Premier Millerand ultimately convinced the Italian and British premiers that they were wrong and it was decided to confine discussion of the German problem to the supreme council.

Premier Receives Correspondents.

SAN REMO, April 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Alexander Millerand, the French premier, today received the American newspaper correspondents, of whom 11 are here, and talked freely about peace conference affairs.

"Our friendship with the American people," he said, "did not begin with 1914, but very long before that, and before you brought us the decisive help in the war, which now is such a precious recollection."

"I regret that we could not have the direct active co-operation of the United States government in the preparation of the Turkish treaty here, but I am sure America will not stand apart always from European affairs. I regret much more that the United States does not participate in the discussion of Germany's treatment of the Versailles treaty, which will be considered tomorrow."

Dardanelles Made Free.

Control of the Dardanelles will be exercised by two international commissions, according to plans of the supreme council announced today. One of these will regulate traffic, fix dues for the use of the straits and supervise affairs generally.

The other will be a military commission, having at its disposition forces which will be located on the Gallipoli peninsula and on the other side of the straits.

The passage of these straits will be declared to be forever free to the world's shipping during either peace or war. It does not appear that the United States will be represented on the commissions.

Erzeroum Given to Armenia.

The afternoon session of the council was devoted to the Turkish treaty. After hearing the statement of the Armenian delegation, the conference gave Erzeroum to Armenia.

The control of Constantinople was taken up, and the project recently advanced from London for a high commission composed of England, France and Italy was considered.

The advance of the bolshevik forces on Batoum was also taken up. The military experts gave it as their opinion that the bolsheviks were too strong for the forces at Batoum, which should be evacuated.

The English and French representatives opposed the suggestion, pointing out that Batoum was indispensable as an outlet from Armenia, Georgia and Erzeroum, from which the allies were receiving important supplies of oil and manganese.

France, it was brought out, especially opposed it because Batoum is the outlet for a pipeline from the Baku oil fields, which is essential to France.

REED ARREST CONFIRMED

Detention in Finnish Prison Is Re-asserted in Message.

(Copyright by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

LONDON, April 22.—(Special Cable.)—A Stockholm dispatch to the Daily Herald today repeated the report that John Reed is under arrest in Abo, Finland. He was on the way from Russia to America. The dispatch added that Finnish white soldiers deprived Reed of all his belongings. He is kept in prison. He was indicted for smuggling a far-fetched charge, as Reed intended to take all his property to America.

A dispatch to the Times from Abo, on the Gulf of Finland, stated that a man arrested there a month ago in a coal bunker of a Finnish steamer bound for Sweden gave his name as Casagorovich and asserted that he was an American citizen. Later he said he was John Reed, editor of two newspapers in Oregon. According to another dispatch this man had American, British and German passports, diamonds and a large sum of money. He was imprisoned. Soviet literature, cunningly prepared and reduced to the size of a postage stamp, and a compass were found in his belongings.
