BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Portland atoned for the opening day defeat yesterday by drubbing the Los Angeles club 3-2 in an excellent nine-inning contest that was featured by two bits of sensational fielding by Kingdon and Maisel of the home team.

Kingdon robbed Griggs of a hit by a great one-handed stop back of second and shut off a score, while Maise! made a circus catch of a fly back of second base in the ninth inning. The pitching assignments found Rudy Kallie serving the hooks up to his old Detroit teammate, Delmar Baker, opposed to "Lefty" Thomas, formerly of Seattle. Both pitchers swirled good ball, not a run scoring until the sixth inning, when the Beavers registered one run on a single to center by Cox, Baker's sacrifice and a swat over second base by Carl Spranger. Carl came through with two hits yesterday.

The possibilities of a fast track for the event have nearly faded.
Washington State college has withdrawn from the meet, owing to the rain at Pullman. Bill Hayward of Oregon is also complaining on that score, but is still resolved to enter his team. Baseball is also hit hard.
