DEMOCRATS CALLED TO ELECT CHAIRMAN

Appointment of J. D. Brown Is Declared Illegal.

WILSON ATTACKS FOUND

Record of "Usurper" Looked Into by Chamberlain Faction and Speeches Made Boomerangs.

Call has been issued for a special meeting of the democratic state committee for May 1, to elect a new state chairman. Back of the call, which was sent out by Dr. J. W. Morrow as national committeeman, at the request ef demands from all parts of the state, is a determination to show the anti-Chamberlain faction that they "can't put anything over" on the party organization.

Fluttering across the state like a snow storm, are leaflets aimed at J. D. Brown, alleged state chairman. The leaflets contain extracts of a speech by Mr. Brown in which he attacks. President Wilson These leaf tacks President Wilson. These leaf-lets are a backfire sent out by the dominant democratic faction to offset the propaganda of the anti-Chamber-Ialp group.

h. G. Starkweather was elected state carlingan, but when he became a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator against George E. Chamberiain, he tesigned and the executive committee, appointees of Mr. Starkweather, excepted his resignation and appointed accepted his resignation and appointed J. D. Brown. It is because of this action that the other faction have decided to take action.

Resignation Held Vold. According to the old-line democrats, the may be considered as straightout Chamberlain supporters, Mr. Stark-weather is still state chairman because he hasn't resigned to the state committee and because the so-called resignation given to and accepted by the executive committee is null and void. The point raised is that Mr. Starkweather has not resigned to the only body which is authorized to accept his resignation and he is therefore still chairman. Following out this line of contention, they argue that the ap-pointment of Mr. Brown as state chairman is illegal and they promise to hold Mr. Brown personally ac-countable for any acts he may per-form while under the delusion that he is the state chairman.

What makes the regulars particularly peevish is the pose assumed by the anti-Chamberlain people that they are the only true and loyal friends of the administration and are the Wilson faction which has declared Mr. Brown as state chairman. This being the case, the regulars, which faction includes practically all of the federal office holders, are digging up the record of Mr. Brown, and by comparing notes they have uncovered some interesting things, for instance:

Mr. Brown, now declared state chairman by the self-styled Wilson democratic forms by the self-styled Wilson democratic forms for county clerk, both of the democratic party two years ago.

1919, at The Dalles, in addressing the Oregon and Southern Idaho section of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America, Mr. Brown is reported as assailing Mr. Wilson as a demagogue for the controlling financial institutions of the country and that Mr. Wilson was lending his support toward making this country autocratic. In the same speech Mr. Brown is quoted as asserting that both the democratic and republican both the democratic and republican parties are tools of the giant interparties.

O. C. Leiter, campaign manager for the Hoover republican club of Oregon, received the following telegram from John W. Hallowell of the na-tional Hoover republican club: "William H. Boyd, Wood candidate for delegate-at-large of Ohio today in an effort to enlist Hoover sup-porters for his candidacy, declared: 'Next to General Wood I know of no other man who meets the requirements of what the republican presidential nominee should be than Her bert Hoover. I am now free as to see ond choice. Hoover is a progressive republican; his public utterances and official acts have been such as to commend themselves strongly to me.' Walter D. Meals, Harding candidate in Cleveland, said when he had fulfilled his pledge in convention. T shall vote for Herbert Hoover, the great American."

A number of campaign cards have appeared printed in foreign language, the cards calling attention to the merits of presidential aspirants, chiefly. A protest has been made by former service men against campaign-
