

UNIVERSITY STUDENT POLITICS ON BOOM

Candidates Crop Out Ten Days Before Nomination.

SERVICE MEN ENTER LISTS

Donald Newbury Seeks Presidency and Jack Benefield of Portland Vice-Presidency.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, April 25.—(Special.)—The announcement of candidates for student body officers for next year has been one of the principal matters of interest to undergraduates this week. Nominations for office will be made formally in assembly Wednesday, May 5, but candidates for the most important offices are now being announced on the campus.

Donald Newbury of Medford, is the only man to present definitely as a candidate for president. He is a member of Delta Theta Phi law fraternity, of Epsilon Sigma Phi honor society, of Kappa Kappa Kappa honor society, of the student council and numerous committees.

Jack Benefield of Portland, a graduate of Washington high school, is the only candidate announced for vice-president. He was in the aviation service for two years during the war and this year has been manager of football. He is an honor student and recently was elected to Epsilon Sigma Phi.

Harry Smith of Eugene, managing editor of the Emerald this year, is in the race for editor of the Emerald. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity, and of Sigma Upsilon, national writers' society. Raymond Vester of Portland, the present assistant business manager of the Emerald, is running for business manager of the paper. So far, both are unopposed.

Editor of the Oregonian, the college year book, promises to offer an exciting race with three candidates, Raymond Lawrence of Woodburn, Wanna McKinney of Springfield and Velma Rupert of Eugene. All are members in the school of journalism and have been members of the Emerald staff for two years. Warren Kayes of Eugene, present business manager of the Emerald, is unopposed for business manager of the Oregonian.

Two women have been mentioned as yet for senior woman on the council. Three are to be chosen. One man has been announced for junior man, Edward Twining of Oswego, but two are to be elected for this position. None have been mentioned as candidates for members of the executive council, executive council, yell leader or sophomore man on the council. With unusually large number of candidates are in the field at present.

25 CASES LIQUOR FOUND

Customs Officials Make No Arrests After Ship Is Searched.

Although 25 cases of choice liquor were reported to have been seized aboard the steamer Aberco, just arrived from the coast Saturday, officers Saturday night announced last night that no arrests had yet been made.

The liquor was discovered secreted in various places about the vessel when the ship was searched Saturday. Officers and men alike of the vessel all denied knowledge that there was liquor aboard and consequently the customs officers who were responsible for the search of the vessel for liquor by policemen was forbidden by customs officers Saturday night. Patrolmen Huntington and Russel offered to make an investigation. They were advised that the liquor was in the hands of the customs officials.

Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston Appoints Chairman of National Association.

Mrs. George W. McMath, who is new head of important National Education association committee.

Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations of the school patrons' section of the National Education association for its annual meeting in July at Salt Lake. The appointment was made by Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston, national president of the association.

For years Mrs. Preston, who is now superintendent of public instruction in Washington, whenever opportunity has offered, has recommended women from the coast states for prominent positions in educational work.

It is, no doubt, her adherence to this policy which has led to Mrs. McMath's appointment. Mrs. Preston recently headed the successful campaign for increased salaries for teachers at the special session of the Washington state legislature.

The school patrons' section of the National Education association, which Mrs. McMath will head, comprises the General Association of Women's Clubs, the National Council of Jewish Women, the Collegiate Alumnae and the Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teacher associations.

Prior to her marriage Mrs. McMath taught for five years in the Portland public schools. She has served as a member of the Oregon state board for vocational education for the past three years and was reappointed by the governor on January 1.

As republican national committee man for Oregon, Mrs. McMath has recently taken an active part in the republican organization work.

U. S. 'DRYS' EXASPERATING

BRITISH ROUSED FROM APATHETIC INTEREST.

Diplomatic Action Requesting "Pussyfooters" to Stay at Home Is Possible.

(Copyright by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

LONDON, April 25.—(Special Cable.)—So far there has been no attempt by the British government to interfere with the American dry propagandists in this country. But the irritation they provoke is becoming so pronounced that this government may be forced to make request of the United States that American drays reserve their talents for other climes. A big petition is in process of formation protesting against alien interference in the matter of what Britons shall or shall not drink.

British drays, in inviting American assistance for their campaign against John Barleycorn, are arguing that opposition to them is from the brewers only. But the possibility of some diplomatic action in the near future was intimated tonight in well informed quarters where an apathetic interest in the presence of the American propagandists is no longer pretended.
