The Three-Day Plan and Its Merits

In order that we may give you better service, improve working conditions and eventually cut down the cost of production, our drivers will deliver only in the morning and collect or pick up laundry afternoons. By adopting this plan we are also eliminating a fault that we have for years tried to overcome, and this is—carrying soiled clothing in the same delivery machine at the same time with the clean or ready for delivery—thus making your delivery absolutely sanitary.

All laundries are rushed on the first three days of the week and eighty per cent of the shortage and unsatisfactory work is caused by this rush. Then there is nothing to do on the last days of the week, yet the employees must be paid a full week's salary under the present high cost of living, and we are paying it.

LAUNDRY PRICES are high enough now, but unless conditions change and the patrons of laundries will send in a part of their work the last three days of the week prices for laundry are sure to go higher.

THEREFORE, to avoid the faults mentioned above we have adopted the following plan of collection and delivery:

LAUNDRY COLLECTED— Monday P. M. delivered Thursday A. M. Tuesday P. M. delivered Friday A. M. Wednesday P. M. delivered Saturday A. M. Thursday P. M. delivered Monday A. M. Friday P. M. delivered Tuesday A. M. Saturday P. M. delivered Wednesday A. M.

Under this plan we guarantee better and more satisfactory work.

We Do Four Kinds of Laundry at Four Different Prices
