

CONVENTION ISSUE IS RAISED IN IDAHO

Sentiment for Uninstructed Delegation Divided.

MEETING OPENS TODAY

"Mixing of Medicine" Proceeds Along Line of Indorsement of Governor's Administration.

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho, April 27.—With the arrival of delegates to the Idaho state republican convention which will meet here tomorrow to name eight delegates to the national convention at Chicago, sentiment was said to be strong for an uninstructed delegation in spite of earlier reports that there might be a contest over sending a delegation instructed for Major-General Leonard Wood. While delegates from northern Idaho counties were represented as being "strong for General Wood," those from the south were reported to favor the candidacy of Senator Johnson. During the day it was declared that an uninstructed delegation under the control of Senator Borah would be equivalent to a Johnson delegation. In an informal caucus on the train en route to Coeur d'Alene the delegates from southern Idaho conceded four delegates out of eight to northern Idaho cities. The state of four delegates from northern Idaho was agreed to by the southerners as follows: John Gray, Coeur d'Alene; Stanley Easton, Wallace; J. L. Davis, Moscow; Evan Evans, Grangerville. The southern Idaho delegates were not named. The "mixing of medicine" proceeded tonight along the lines of indorsement of the administration of Governor D. W. Davis, sought by the governor, but opposed, it was said, by J. W. Eagles, treasurer, and M. A. Kliger, speaker of the last house of representatives, who also are after the gubernatorial nomination. A. H. Connor, L. V. Patch, former Governor Frank Gooding, E. G. Davis and Charles W. H. Senatorial aspirants, were here tonight.

SYRIANS TO BE ACCUSED

MORE MERCHANTS WILL BE CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

Nation-Wide Plan to Mulet Textile Jobbers and Wholesalers Is Revealed.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Federal indictments similar to those returned in Washington, N. C., charging 28 Syrian merchants with conspiracy to defraud, soon will be sought in many other parts of the country, it was announced here today by the National Association of Credit Men, which has been co-operating with federal agents in an eight months' investigation said to involve the loss of millions of dollars. Charles D. West, manager of the association's investigation and prosecution department, declared the association had discovered traces of a nation-wide plan, engineering and executed by Syrians, to defraud clothing and textile jobbers and wholesalers. He said that the general scheme was to get up certain Syrian merchants in business, show them how to operate small stores and to build up credit. The "higher ups" instructed the small merchants to buy on credit large amounts of fine textiles handled easily by traveling peddlers. West alleged that after the goods were received, many of these small merchants disappeared and the "higher ups" obtained the merchandise and disposed of it. According to West, New York merchants alone lost $200,000 in the last six months, while other centers affected were St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Paul, Milwaukee, Seattle, Portland, Or., San Francisco, Los Angeles and New Orleans.

"It must be considered that the grand jury, in asking for these records, makes the request in good faith," Judge Bean said in his oral opinion. "The power of the grand jury is commensurate with that of the matter

SHERIFF OUSTS DEPUTY

WALLA WALLA "BOOZE SCANDAL" ROUSES OFFICIAL.

County Prisoners Had Access to Wine Seized in Raids Is Allegation.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 27.—(Special)—Sheriff Yates returned today from California with an automobile stolen recently and immediately proceeded to "clean house" by demanding and receiving the resignation of Deputy Sheriff and Jailor Godbold, named in connection with the recent "booze scandal" at the county jail. Godbold's resignation is effective May 1. "I will not stand for any of my men to besmirch the name of the sheriff's office by the discharge of his duty, and I have the resignation of Jailor Godbold in my possession," said Sheriff Yates today. "I know nothing whatever about the prisoners in the county jail being furnished contraband liquor nor the reported card parties held by the jailor and the prisoners. If these things were done it was during my absence and without my knowledge. I did take a half gallon of wine from my office to Miss Kelson, a neighbor who was ill from tuberculosis and who recently died from the disease. This is to my knowledge the only liquor ever removed from the sheriff's office." Commissioner Moore said today that he was not sure the board has jurisdiction in holding an inquiry into the recent "booze scandal," but the matter will be talked over by the commissioners. Many around the courthouse believe that the resignation of Jailor Godbold will end the scandal which followed signing of affidavits by prisoners that "wine parties" at the jail were numerous and that the prisoners had practically free access to quantities of wine seized in raids.

Large Space vs. Small Space

Lincoln is said to have decided that the right length for a man's legs was the length necessary to reach the ground.

The length and nature of the message would seem to determine the proper size of space to be used.

This is a small-space advertisement because it carries a short message without illustration.

As publishers we buy small-space and large-space advertisements; and as publishers we sell large-space and small-space advertisements in our magazines both here and abroad.

As buyers and sellers of advertising space we do not believe there is an iron-clad rule governing the best practice in all cases alike.

In consulting with prospective advertisers we avoid offering a universal cure-all with identical dosage.
